

Athletic and Residential Life Intern
2019-2020 Academic Year

Tilton School seeks a paid Athletic and Residential Life Intern who will coach three seasons and participate fully in our residential life program. Qualified candidates will have experience working with students in a residential setting (camp, college or boarding school). They must have substantial experience in high school and college athletics. They must demonstrate a commitment to their own growth and the growth of their student/athletes.

The position includes a coaching position in three seasons: TBD fall, boys' basketball in the winter, and boys' lacrosse in the spring.

For residential life, this position will serve as a driver for the health center, a duty team member one evening (Monday-Thursday) as well as every fourth Friday and every fourth weekend.

Preference will be given to candidates who have

- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills
- An abiding belief that all students can grow and succeed
- Ability to work well in a student-centered program
- An eagerness to work in an intense, changing and supportive learning community
