

Interested in leading a British international school?

CPAH COBIS PROGRAMME FOR ASPIRING HEADS 2019/20

Rome | Kuala Lumpur | Muscat
From September 2019

Ready to prepare for your first years of headship?

The CPAH is a professional development programme for Aspiring Heads and Senior Leaders who are interested in developing their practice. The course runs over a period of eight to ten months, combining six days of face-to-face sessions in the autumn and spring/summer terms with a choice of assignments and optional school placements.

- Learn from and with other international school practitioners
- Gain a recognised qualification to prepare for headship in an international school
- Facilitated by practising international school leaders with extensive experience of headship

Course content includes:

Personal target setting and models of intentional change

Educational philosophy and vision applied to decision making

Considering the move to strategy and context

Mapping out the first 100 days of headship

Collaborative and network learning

Governance and governors

Financial management

Engaging with stakeholders

"I am a better leader now than before undertaking the CPAH, mainly down to learning from others and reflecting on my own practice... The learning points from this year will have a positive impact on teaching and learning in the next academic year." (CPAH participant)
