

Don't Let the Pigeon Write a Play

Grades 3-5

Using characters from our favorite children's books, we are going to write and perform our very own plays! Students will spend the first half of each class learning/practicing essential audition and acting techniques. The second half of each class will focus on adapting children's books into scripts and putting our techniques to work to make bold and exciting character choices! The books we'll use include: "Don't Let The Pigeon Drive The Bus!", "The Day The Crayons Quit", "George and Martha", "I Want My Hat Back", and "Interrupting Chicken".
