

COMMUNICATION WITH PARENTS/GUARDIANS

The Governing Board encourages parental involvement, which contributes greatly to student achievement and conduct, through frequent communication between parents/guardian and teachers by means of parent-teacher conferences, class newsletters, mail, telephone, electronic communication and school visits by parents/guardians.

Reporting to Parents

The governing board believes that good communication between parent and teacher is important in the educational process.

As part of this communication, teachers shall send progress reports to parents/guardians at regular intervals and shall encourage parents/guardians to communicate any concerns to the teacher.

Students who are on an individualized education program are evaluated regularly, and the evaluations shall be communicated to the parents according to the regulations of the special education service region.

Parent-Teacher Conferences

Parent-teacher conferences are deemed a valuable communication tool. District wide parent-teacher conferences shall be scheduled in compliance with existing contract language.
