

SOCIAL EVENTS – MEETINGS

A number of our school goals are supported by well-conceived and well-managed social events. Parents expect their children to learn and to feel at ease in appropriate social situations. Consequently, parties, dances and comparable social events have an important place in a well-rounded school program. The staff is encouraged to utilize such events intelligently.