2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA’s data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by “TFS” (too few students).

What perception data did you use?	Focus groups with each of the schools represented along with district leaders, parents, and community members met. In addition, surveys were sent to stakeholders (in the system, parents, and community members) electronically asking for input. Specific perception data used included: CCRPI data, climate surveys, GSHS, AdvancED surveys and interview results, district surveys, and CNA Stakeholder meeting minutes.

What does the perception data tell you?	High expectations are expected at every level in our system. We put the needs of our students first and personal best is expected. Students who need extra help should be provided interventions and extra support. Students who excel should be given appropriate challenges and opportunities. The rising prevalence of mental health problems in youth is occurring in our system. The district needs to provide resources for students. Faculty should also be provided with professional development on how to help students and monitoring resources to monitor student safety and mental health. There is a need for continued growth in the area of professional development, family engagement, academic support (tutors, programs, and supplies), building relationships, and in providing non-academic resources to our students.

What process data did you use?	AdvancED report, FIP collaboration logs, PBIS data, DIP monthly review data, professional development surveys, district surveys

What does your process data tell you?	Teachers are attending professional learning regularly, the family engagement program is serving more families each year, and students are being served in the environment that is best for them. However, there is a need for continued growth in the area of professional development, family engagement, academic support (tutors, programs, and supplies), building relationships, and in providing non-academic resources to our students.

What achievement data did you use?	EOG/EOC, growth measures, easyCBM, SLDS, CCRPI, college credits earned, Soliday Reading data, dual enrollment participation numbers, AP course completion, district surveys

What does your achievement data tell you?	The school system provides the resources and materials necessary to meet the needs of all students. Students who need extra help should be provided interventions and extra support. Students who excel should be given appropriate challenges and opportunities. There is a need for continued growth in the area of professional development, family engagement, academic support (tutors, programs, and supplies), building relationships, and in providing non-academic resources to our students.

What demographic data did you use?	Free/Reduced Lunch Count, PowerSchool reports, US Census

What does the demographic data tell you?	Rabun County is a high poverty area. Rabun County Middle School and High School are not Title 1 schools but both schools are affected by poverty. All schools make a concerted effort to reach out to parents to offer opportunities for parental input and involvement. Due to the economics of the families in the district students often come to school without basic needs being met.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Data Driven Decision Making – our system uses data from a variety of sources to drive all decision making. Strong stakeholder involvement at every level. Coordination of Resources – our system coordinates all resources, fiscal, physical and human, to support the instructional needs of our students and staff. High Expectations – nothing less than best is modeled, expected or accepted in our system. We expect our instructional system to be implemented and supported with research based practices and strategies. We inspect what we expect. Teachers are held accountable by system-wide implementation of FIP. We use our evaluation processes to support, remediate and enhance instructional practices. Strong Technology Integration – our system supports the instructional system with many pieces of technology and monitors the integration on instructional opportunities&hellip;.Chromebook carts in every school, 1 to 1 Chromebook initiative at the high school, flat panels in every classroom, Gaggle Collaboration – our system is dedicated to collaboration. We use vertical and horizontal collaboration, cross curriculum planning, multiple grade level planning, PLC/grade level meetings/department level meetings, After School program collaboration, mentor teacher collaboration. Process in place at system level for monthly collaboration and monitoring of DIP. Strong communication across the system. Supports and Interventions – our system is devoted to instructional support through: paraprofessionals in all rooms Pre-K-3rd grade, Reading and Math Interventionists, Gifted Services, ELL and Migrant program services, Wildcat Time at the high school, flipped schedule at the middle school, After School program, REACH scholarship, Mentors, School based Psychologist, PBIS program implementation, Family Engagement Specialist. Our system also believes in early intervention in mental health/safety needs as they impact our instructional system as well: FUTURES Classroom addition, Behavioral Interventionist, SRO's at each school, Safe Schools Coordinator, School Nurses at every school, Mental Health Services, System Social Worker.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The committee felt that through its leadership, the trends and patterns of the Rabun County school system indicate that decisions are made based on what is best for the students. The committee indicated the continuance of: strong leadership support, CNA meetings, Needs Assessment Surveys, Professional Development Opportunities, monthly administrator meetings, student achievement reviews, CCRPI reviews, stakeholder input, faculty meetings, and 4-5 Star Climate ratings.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Our committee determined that Rabun County Schools and each of its affiliate schools have an effective, systemic approach in place to determine the professional learning needs of its employees and provide specific, targeted support based on those needs. The System sends out an annual Professional Needs Survey at the end of each year to determine both the professional needs and the required budget for professional development during the upcoming school year. At the building level, each individual school uses a variety of data points to determine the individualized professional development needs of their faculty and staff. These data points include but are not limited to Georgia Milestone data, CCRPI data, grade level or course specific growth measures, TKES evaluations, daily 5x5 observations, teacher surveys, student and parent surveys, and individual School Improvement Plans. We found that each school consistently implements the TKES evaluation process for teachers and leaders, along with daily 5x5 walkthroughs. They consistently share and analyze Georgia Milestone results and CCRPI results on an annual basis and use those results to develop their School Improvement Plans and subsequent professional development opportunities. Several of the schools go a step further and conduct individual school needs assessments to further determine and develop professional learning opportunities. The only area we found that did not support an Exemplary rating was Standard 5 (Assessing the impact of professional learning on staff practices and student learning and makes adjustments as needed.). The determining factor for rating this standard Operational was the language dealing with "examining performance data throughout the year" found in the Exemplary definition. At this time, the majority of the schools do not have a systemic approach to collecting performance data throughout the school year. Student performance data, outside of formative classroom assessments and summative unit assessments, is currently only available at the end of a school year, and not available for building or system level adjustments to professional development throughout the year. Several schools indicated the development and implementation of quarterly assessments designed to provide that student performance data for decision making throughout the year.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The committee noted that Rabun County schools does a great job of engaging parents in PK - 6 grades but as the students move into middle school and high school, parental involvement outside of extracurricular activities and school council meetings diminishes drastically. Much of the decline is due to students' independence and not wanting parents on campus, as well as parents' work schedules and other obligations. The high poverty level of Rabun County further contributes to the lack of parental involvement. Many parents can not afford to miss work and many do not have reliable transportation. Each school uses a variety of methods for soliciting parent input including school surveys and school council meetings. Policies and procedures are posted on district and school websites.
Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Data reviewed by the CNA team indicates that Rabun County provides structure and leadership for a positive and safe learning environment. While we are focused on providing supportive services to meet the needs of the whole child, we recognize that there is always more that can be done. The team acknowledges that Rabun has a strong leadership structure that promotes growth for teacher-leaders and professional autonomy across the system. We believe that in order to meet all the needs of our unique learners, we must work together, as a team, connecting school and community in a supportive way.
Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Student needs are used to drive our financial decisions. The number of our students who qualify for free/reduced lunch (economically disadvantaged) is growing and is approximately 65% of our total student population. We are seeing a growing number of students with behavioral needs that impact their mental health and system safety concerns. Our local tax digest is steadily growing which provides a stable tax base but also results in our state funds decreasing. Presently our LFS is over $8 million and we only receive 49% of our earned FTE. Employees' salaries and benefits consume 87% of the system's total general fund budget. Our school millage rate is among the lowest in the State and our RESA and is currently below 10 mills. Our system receives both ELOST and ESPLOST funds.
Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Each school makes a concerted effort to share and analyze all Georgia Milestone and CCRPI data. That data is then used to develop the individual school level improvement plans which all include specific professional learning opportunities. With a growing number of students who are economically disadvantaged, we will continue to see students who enter the school system without the foundation needed to be successful academically. We will need to continue to provide additional paraprofessional support in our primary and elementary school along with additional intervention support for both

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	behavior and academics. The After School program will be needed to provided additional support along with our mentor program. Teachers will need training in instructional strategies, FIP and resources to support student needs.

IDEA - Special Education

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	Communication between special education and general education staff and also with parents regarding their students' progress is a strength.SPED staff puts SWD's first on list of priorities.taff feel supported in decision making regarding SWDs.

Challenges	Continue to work on communication and consistent procedures throughout the district. Provide accessible training for GOIEP and other required documentation.

Title I - Part A - Improving Academic Achievement of Disadvantaged

Strengths	A comprehensive needs assessment is held annually at both Title 1 schools with input from staff, parents, and community members which drives the planning and budgeting for the Title 1 program. By using the school-wide approach, the funds are used for the benefit of all our students. The feel of community ownership from the needs assessment to the expending of funds creates an environment in which every student is valued. Teacher training supplies, technologies, classroom material and personnel provided by Title 1 funds are used to serve our students in multiple ways.

Title I - Part A - Improving Academic Achievement of Disadvantaged

Challenges	The negative connotation of the term "Title I" is found to be a stumbling block by veteran teachers who have worked in schools with targeted assistance programs. These teachers have been trained that Title I is only for students who are economically disadvantaged and find it hard to accept that all students in our schools qualify because we are school-wide schools.

Title I, Part A - Foster Care

Strengths	Our transportation department works very cooperatively to arrange bus transportation to students in foster care.

Challenges	Bus driver shortage creates challenges for the transportation department to work out the bus routes, particularly if an addition route needs to be implemented.

Title I, Part A - Parent and Family Engagement

Strengths	The district employs a full time Family Engagement Specialist who works with parents and families at both Title 1 schools. Both Title 1 schools also have a Family Resource Room with materials for parents to check out to help their child at home. The Family Engagement Specialist is available to meet with parents before, during, and after school. The Family Engagement Specialist also holds parent workshops based on needs identified in the Title 1 Surveys. The Family Engagement Specialist works diligently to build relationships with our families and the schools. Parent nights are held at each school where parents are able to participate in lessons and activities in their child's classroom.

Challenges	The biggest challenged faced in Parent and Family Engagement is recruiting parents and families to attend our parent meetings and workshops. Many parents do not have time in their schedule to attend functions or visit the Family Resource Room.

Title I, Part C - Education of Migratory Children

Strengths	The Migrant SSP is very knowledgeable and dedicated to the migrant students of Rabun County. By attending professional learning and working closely with the state the Migrant SSP offers resources to the migrant population that serves their needs. As migrant students enroll MSIX is checked to determine their academic status. They are given a pre-test to determine their present levels of performance. The migrant SSP serves K-12 throughout the school day. Additional tutors (classified teachers) are used after school if a student shows an extreme need. The SSP develops a schedule to serve preschool and OSY/DO during the school year. The same process is used with a pre-test to determine needs. During the summer season the SSP and migrant tutor (certified teacher) develop a schedule to serve preschool, K-12, and OSY/DO migrant participants. These schedules are flexible and fluid so that the sessions cause the least disruption to the work schedules of parents and participants. Throughout the year pre and post tests are given to MEP participants in order to track progress since the majority of our students are not in the county during standardized testing.
------------------	---

Challenges	Receiving records from previous schools is often a challenge we face. Due to the transient nature of our MEP participants they often demonstrate gaps and weaknesses in all subjects with an emphasis in reading and math. Using pre/post tests, ACCESS scores (if available), Milestones scores (if available), and consultation with the regular school day the SSP develops tutoring to best serve the individual student. Due to a larger than expected number of middle and high school students arriving in the summer the district plans to begin extra tutoring beginning as soon as the summer program ends and school begins (pending staff approval).

Title I, Part A and Title I, Part D - Neglected and Delinquent Children

Strengths	There are no Neglected institutions and no Delinquent institutions within the boundaries of the LEA.

Title I, Part A and Title I, Part D - Neglected and Delinquent Children

Challenges	There are no Neglected institutions and no Delinquent institutions within the boundaries of the LEA.

Title II, Part A - Supporting Effective Instruction

Strengths	Rabun County continues to attract and retain effective teachers, leaders, and professional personnel to meet the projected student growth for the aging workforce and current staffing deficits. All staff receive professional learning and/or training to increase their skills and knowledge. New staff receive orientation training to fully immerse them in the Rabun County culture. Funds are allocated for mentors, PL stipends, GACE testing, adding endorsements & other fields to current certification to meet the diverse needs of students.

Challenges	31% of certified staff have over 20 years experience which means there will be a large group retiring over the next few years. The system needs to be prepared for recruitment. The cost of housing in Rabun County appears to be a challenge when recruiting from outside. In addition, with the transition from HQ to PQ and In-field many educators do not understand requirements for certification.

Language Instruction for English Learners and Immigrant Students Describe your LEAs strengths & challenges in educating English Learner & Immigrant students based on trends and patterns in EL subgroup achievement and English proficiency. (All LEAs must complete, regardless if receiving a Title III allocation or not.)

Strengths	We serve students in a variety of ways (co-teach, class periods, and an innovative delivery model) which allows teachers to serve those students in a way that best suits the student. Student placement and data is reviewed quarterly. In addition, a Google Team Drive has been created that allows all staff access to forms and manuals. Professional development is provided regularly to all teachers of English Learners at the school level. The district is dedicated to providing resources that are teacher requested in order to best serve the needs of our students and to provide outside professional learning to Title III teachers as requested. Title III funded initiatives continue to help students to achieve higher levels of academic achievement and to assist them in learning the English language. FinishLine was utilized at our elementary school and the elementary school had 15 of our 19 (20 total, but 1 student exited with the new Alternate ACCESS procedures) students who exited the program. The district feels that FinishLine is one reason for the large number of exits at the elementary school.

Language Instruction for English Learners and Immigrant Students Describe your LEAs strengths & challenges in educating English Learner & Immigrant students based on trends and patterns in EL subgroup achievement and English proficiency. (All LEAs must complete, regardless if receiving a Title III allocation or not.)

Strengths	Rosetta Stone was utilized with our students who were new to the country and had no exposure to the English language. Raz-Plus, Ipads, supplemental teaching supplies were utilized by teachers to use in small groups with Title III students and they were also used in our after school tutoring program. In addition the Ipads were available to check out to students (following RCSS inventory procedures). Teachers reported an increase in student achievement from the students who utilized the Ipads. 16.8% of our students who took the ACCESS test were exited from the program in the spring of 2019. English language learners met the improvement target in the most recent CCRPI report.
------------------	---

Challenges	Analysis of Milestones data indicates the majority our ELs are still performing at Beginning and Developing levels across all subjects and grades. The district needs to continue to engage regular education teachers in professional learning as well as encourage cooperation between regular education teachers and ESOL teachers. The 2018-2019 school year was the first year of our Title III after school tutoring program. The district plans to fund the program again with an early start time in the year. The district attempted a summer program as well, but due to the lack of transportation we did not have any students who were able to attend. Raz-Plus and supplemental supplies will be purchased earlier in the year (to correspond with the tutoring program). Other challenges include family engagement at the middle and high school levels and increasing the number of ESOL certified staff.

Title IX, Part A - McKinney-Vento Education for Homeless Children and Youth

Strengths	The School Social Worker serves as the Homeless Liaison. "Student Residency Questionnaires" are included in all student enrollment packets to assist in the identification of homeless students. The homeless liaison collaborates with school staff, parents, and community agencies to provide training and to insure homeless students are immediately enrolled in school and have access to adequate services, all in an effort to maintain school stability.

Title IX, Part A - McKinney-Vento Education for Homeless Children and Youth

Challenges	Students and families may not be forthcoming about their homeless living situations due to embarrassment and/or fear of having their children taken away if they are reported to DFCS by the school officials. Additionally, families may not self-identify as "homeless" because the definition of "homeless" in the McKinney-Vento Act is broad, and encompasses living arrangements that are not commonly referred to as "homeless."

Title I, Part A - Equitable Access to Effective Educators

Strengths	Data is analyzed by the schools and district to identify equity gaps and to determine professional learning needs of staff. The system implements a New Teacher Orientation at district and school levels. Years of experience are taken into account when administrators assign teaching positions. Mentors that are aligned with the grade/subject level are paired with teachers new to the profession or less than three years experience.

Challenges	As veteran educators retire and new teachers are hired it can take time for the new teachers to acclimate to the teaching profession.

Title IV, Part A - Student Support and Academic Enrichment

Strengths	The Title IV, Part A grant has provided the district with an opportunity to provide supplemental services to all students. Services provided have not only served the academic needs of students, they have served whole child as well.
------------------	---

Challenges	Some initiatives were not implemented fully at the school level.

Title V, Part B - Rural Education

Strengths	The Title V, Part B grant has provided the district with an opportunity to provide supplemental services to all students. Academic support through personnel and supplies has been provided.

Title V, Part B - Rural Education

Challenges	Challenges include the prioritization of needs.

In developing this plan, briefly describe how the district sought advice from individuals and organizations [teachers, principals, other school leaders, paraprofessionals (including organizations representing such individuals), specialized instructional support personnel, charter school leaders (in a district that has charter schools), parents, community partners, and other organizations or partners with relevant and demonstrated expertise in Federal ESSA programs and activities designed to meet the purpose of Title II, Part A] regarding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • how best to improve the district’s activities to meet the purpose of Title II, Part A; • and to coordinate district activities under Title II, Part A with other related strategies, programs, Federal ESSA programs (Title I, Part A; Title I, Part A Children in Foster Care; Title I, Part A Family School Partnerships; Title I, Part C; Title III, Part A; Title IV, Part A; Title IV, Part B) and activities being conducted in the community. 	All stakeholders are invited to be involved in the process to improve student achievement and provide equitable access to effective educators. Surveys are distributed to parents, community, certified and classified employees to gather data and input. A needs assessment is completed by all certified staff and paraprofessionals to determine professional learning needs for the upcoming year. A committee of stakeholders met to determine gaps and needs based on data. The administrative team also shared school improvement needs. Faculty members have a voice through leadership meetings, faculty meetings, grade level meetings, and by serving on system level committees. Stakeholders are welcome and encouraged to serve on committees at the school and system level because their voice matters and they speak in the community. Sign-in sheets, agendas, and other documentation are kept showing the involvement of stakeholders in planning. Coordination of federal, state and local funds are used to prepare, train, and recruit effective teachers, principals, and other school leaders to meet the diverse needs of all students.

All professional learning is evidenced-based, personalized, and focused on improving teaching and student learning and achievement. The most current needs assessment results show teachers prefer school-based professional learning communities. Collaborative planning times are included in the schedules for Professional Learning Communities to meet. Protocols are in place to protect the meeting times and ensure productivity. All PL will be job-embedded, but delivered in the method most effective for the persons needing the training. TKES/LKES will be the springboard for individualized learning, while the school improvement plan will guide other PL needs. Induction programs are in place for new teachers which include support from mentors. IDEA Performance Goals classrooms range from Direct Services on a daily basis to an inclusion setting offered on a daily basis or per the student's IEP. Other services offered, as dictated by the child's IEP, include Speech, Occupational Therapy, and Physical Therapy.

Describe how the district will meet the following IDEA performance goals:

Trainings are conducted each year with district staff during pre-planning and throughout the year on professional development days as needed. These trainings range from mental health training, to service specific training for each area. IEP training is offered to staff each year as well. Staff will be identified for specific technical assistance through direct supervision and monitoring by the local administration and the Special Education Director. Quarterly IEP audits will be conducted to locate any teachers in need of technical assistance in that area.

Young children's activities are monitored for fidelity by the Special Education Director through IEP audits quarterly. The Special Education Director will also visit the classrooms within the district and outside agencies to discuss implementation and service availability along with evaluation of staff in order to determine if programs are being implemented with fidelity and also to determine if future training or improvements may be necessary.

Describe how the district will meet the following IDEA performance goals:

- IDEA Performance Goal 3: Improve the provision of a free and appropriate public education to students with disabilities;

IEP implementation will be monitored through the GOIEP system. Teachers will be trained on IEP and eligibility procedures at least annually and on an as needed basis. New teachers to Special Education will receive multiple training sessions regarding IEP and eligibility procedures along with training specific to the use and implementation of GOIEP. These trainings will be conducted by the Special Education Director. Teachers needing technical assistance in regards to IEP and eligibility procedures will be identified through quarterly IEP audits as well as through supervision by Special Education Director and school level administration.

LRE must be discussed and considered at each student's annual IEP meeting, at a minimum. All students with disabilities are offered a continuum of services, which is discussed at the annual review IEP meeting, at a minimum.

IEP accommodations and modifications are shared with teachers/staff working with SWD's via communication from the student's IEP case manager, whether via a hard copy provided by the IEP case manager, or through access to GOIEP as needed. All teachers have access to GOIEP after they create their account and IEP case managers make all teachers of SWD's a team member so that the accommodations and modifications can be viewed at any time by the teacher.

As data is collected the student's teachers review the data to determine if the individualized accommodations or modifications in place are meeting the needs of each student. If the data collected shows needs are not being met then a meeting is called to discuss if the accommodation/modification or strategy was being implemented with fidelity or if a change to the accommodation/modification or strategy is required. A variety of data is collected from EOG/EOC scores to benchmark scores to Curriculum Based Measures along with day to day data collection of behaviors and performance on daily assignments. He spoke on the topics of treating others with respect, making the best of your circumstances, setting and achieving goals, and developing a "no excuses" mindset. We have also implemented our own Character Education Assembly Program utilizing leaders within our school to speak once a month to students about treating others with respect and staying motivated to achieve their very best. The objective of the guest speaker assemblies is to reinforce student student expectations about behavior, mental health, setting goals, and respecting others. Expected outcomes are for students to rethink and/or change their attitudes and beliefs (will be measured with a survey). 2018-2019 Results: The response from our student body was overwhelmingly positive. Students and teachers continue to mention Dr. Brown and how he inspired them. 2019-2020 School Year Funding: RCHS will continue to focus on student mental well being and has requested continued funding for another guest speaker. The objective of the Saturday school program is to provide time outside of school hours for students to get extra help, make up absences, and serve discipline to avoid missing regular class time. The expected outcome is for students completing courses to receive credit. 2018-2019 Results: Saturday School was held from October to May. An average of 30 students in each session were able to make up absences, receive tutoring, and serve discipline sentences. 2019-2020 School Year Funding: Saturday School will continue in the 19-20 school year. PBIS continues to grow at both our primary and elementary schools. Both schools have monthly PBIS team meetings and share data with faculty and staff.
