

Mrs. Christie Alfred is entering her 33rd year of service in education. She has proudly served the MISD for 26 years. She joined the MISD as an Assistant Principal at Rogene Worley Middle School. In 2018, she assumed the role as Chief Innovation Officer.

Mrs. Alfred's administrative responsibilities within the MISD have included Assistant Principal and Principal of Rogene Worley Middle School, Principal of Ben Barber Innovation Academy and Frontier High School, Director of Career and Technical Education, Executive Director of Curriculum and Instruction and currently Chief Innovation Officer.

In Mrs. Alfred's current role, her responsibilities include the supervision of district wide professional development, district wide career and technical education programs, Federal Programs, supervisor of Ben Barber Innovation Academy and of the TVHS Early College High School. She oversees the Power of Choice district wide selection process and mentors principals as they seek to innovative ways to brand campuses. She also works with college partnerships and adult and community education programs.

Mrs. Alfred earned her Bachelor of Science degree from Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana, along with her teaching credentials. She earned a Masters in Educational Administration from National Lewis University in Chicago, Illinois. In addition, she earned her Superintendent Certification from the University of Texas in Arlington.

Christie and Richie, her husband of 26 years, reside in Mansfield and have two adult daughters Amanda and Ashely. Their older daughter, Amanda is a graduate of the University of Texas in Arlington. Their younger daughter, Ashely is a graduate of Abilene Christian University.