

Dr. Tammy Rountree began her career in education in 1982 as a middle school teacher in Cedar Hill ISD. In 1992, she took her first administrative position as a middle school assistant principal in Carrollton-Farmers Branch and a few years later was named professional development and special programs coordinator in DeSoto ISD. Dr. Rountree then spent the next 15 years as either an intermediate or elementary school principal. She had the privilege of opening Spencer Elementary in 2006. After serving the Mansfield community for 13 years, Dr. Rountree was named Area Superintendent in July of 2013.

Dr. Rountree earned a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Texas at Arlington, a Master of Arts from the University of North Texas, and a Doctor of Education from Baylor University. She holds a lifetime State Board of Educator Certification in history and social studies and State of Texas principal and superintendent certifications.

Dr. Rountree and her husband, Jeff Kuntzman, brought their families together 20 years ago. They have four adult children and one adorable grandson. Jeff retired from education in 2005 after serving as a middle and high school principal. He currently runs their family business, Broadway Blinds. Dr. Rountree and Jeff live in Mansfield with their sweet Chihuahua, Lucy Loo.
