

David Wright began his career in education in Odessa, Texas at Ector County ISD in 1990. He was a teacher and a coach at the same junior high he attended a decade before at Bonham Junior High school. Since that time he has served in five school districts as a science teacher, in athletics as a baseball and football coach, and in administration as an assistant principal, principal, and director. Beginning in 2016, David was promoted to Assistant Superintendent for Student Services and Support in Mansfield ISD.

David earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Education from Lubbock Christian University where he also played baseball. A Master of Education from the University of Texas A&M Commerce was earned in 1998. David holds State Board of Educator Certifications for Teaching, Administration and Superintendent.

While at Lubbock Christian University, David met his wife Sandy and they were married in 1988. Sandy is also an educator and is currently an elementary counselor. They have two children, Braden and Holland. Both are graduates of Mansfield ISD.
