

Centennial Junior High School

Eligibility for Student Government, Cheerleading and Athletics.

Students desiring to participate in extracurricular activities must maintain the following standards:

Student Government-

Any student who seeks to run for student government must have maintained a minimum GPA of 3.0 in each of the three terms preceding elections. Additionally, students must not have received more than one F or more than one U total during the three terms preceding elections and no more than one (1) N in any of the previous three terms.

Students elected to office shall maintain a 3.0 GPA with no "F's," no "U's," and no "N's" while in office. Failure to comply with these standards shall result, first being placed on probation. If probation fails, the officer will be removed from office. Officers may refer to the Standards Committee for further consideration of their standing.

Cheerleading-

Any student who seeks to tryout for cheerleading must have maintained a minimum GPA of 3.0 in each of the three terms preceding tryouts. Additionally, students must not have received more than one F or more than one U total during the three terms preceding tryouts and no more than one (1) N in any of the previous three terms. If a U citizenship grade was received during the three terms prior to tryouts, that U must be cleared before the first day of tryouts.

Students chosen as a cheerleader shall maintain a 3.0 GPA with no "F's," no "U's," and no "N's". Failure to comply with these standards shall result, first, in being placed on probation. If probation fails, the cheerleader will be removed from the squad. Cheerleaders may refer to the Standards Committee for further consideration of their standing.

Athletic-

In the term preceding athletic participation, students must have obtained a minimum GPA of 2.0 with no "F's," no U's, and no more than one (1) N. If the end of the term falls in the middle of a season the participant must maintain eligibility based on the previously noted criteria or they will be subject to elimination from the team.

Students may appeal to the Standards Committee for further consideration of their standing.
