

Carolyn F. Hall is dedicated to teaching young singers about their voices and how to enjoy the gift of song. She received her Bachelor of Music from Wesleyan College, Master of Music Education from the University of South Carolina and Master of Music in Choral Conducting, from the University of Greensboro. A member of the NC National Association of Teachers of Singing and NATS, North Carolina American Choral Directors Association and ACDA, the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians in Music and Worship Arts and WNC Fellowship. Founding Artistic Director of High Point Young Voices, Ms. Hall's background includes experience working with singers of all ages from kindergarten to senior citizens. She has sung with Bel Canto Company, Piedmont Chamber Singers, Charlotte Symphony, Charlotte Repertory Orchestra, Oratorio and Chamber Singers of Charlotte, UNCG Opera and Opera Carolina. Currently, Ms. Hall serves on the Greensboro Opera Board of Directors.

Singing is a feel good lifetime activity with benefits for all.

Vocal Arts Classes

Vocal Arts classes will be offered for 8 weeks in the fall and 10 weeks in the spring. Students may participate in one or the other, but are encouraged to enroll in both to get the most from the classes.

Young singers can develop a good singing voice if encouraged and guided at an early age. All classes take into consideration the individual advancement of each singer and support from the entire group is encouraged. Singers will be able to share their talents as they are ready in a variety of settings.

Tuition and materials:

Fall – 8-week session
$80 tuition, $10 materials - $90 total

Spring – 10-week session
$100 tuition, $10 materials - $110 total
