ABOUT THE OKLAHOMA HALL OF FAME

The Oklahoma Hall of Fame was created in 1927 to honor Oklahomans who had given outstanding service to the state in their lifetimes and provide education programming for students of all ages. Being inducted into the Hall is the highest honor an Oklahoman can receive from the state, and 698 individuals have received this recognition since 1928.

Today, the stories of all the Inductees are told in the interactive Gaylord-Pickens Museum, home of the Oklahoma Hall of Fame. Members also are honored on granite monuments in the Heritage Plaza at the Oklahoma State Fairgrounds. Classes are formally inducted at the Oklahoma Hall of Fame Banquet & Induction Ceremony during statehood week in November each year.

Anyone can make a nomination to the Oklahoma Hall of Fame. To learn more about nomination criteria or to find ticket information about the annual Oklahoma Hall of Fame Banquet & Induction Ceremony visit OklahomaHoF.com.
