

College Advising Questionnaire

In order for me to counsel you about the college admissions process effectively, it's important that I get to know you better. Therefore, please consider the following questions carefully and answer them for me as thoroughly and candidly as you can. I must have your completed questionnaire before we can have our first meeting, so please give it to me as soon as possible. Thanks! – Mrs. Bonner

Name:

Best phone number to reach you:

With whom do you live? ____ mother ____ father ____ both parents ____ guardian

If you live with a guardian, what is that person's relationship to you?

Name of parent(s) or guardian I should contact with college/career information:

Best phone number to reach that person:

Siblings (names and ages):

If your parents or a sibling attended college, please list the family member(s) and the college they attended.

Are you a U.S. citizen? ____ If not, of which country are you a citizen? Do you have permanent residency status in the U.S.?

Is any language other than English spoken at home?

If you have lived in places other than the Philadelphia area, please list those places and the years you lived there.

Have you ever been suspended from Boys' Latin? If so, please list grade and reason for each suspension.

Do you have a criminal arrest record?

Please list all of the extracurricular activities with which you have been involved during high school. Include everything you've done (sports, performing arts, visual arts, leadership roles, community service, etc.), the dates of your involvement, and a description of your involvement (including time commitment). Include activities you have pursued outside school as well.

Of all the activities you've participated in, which are the most important to you? Why?

Do you plan to pursue any of these activities in college? If yes, which ones?

Are there any activities you have not pursued in high school that you would like to try in college?

Do you work either during the academic year or in the summer? If so, where and how many hours per week do you work?

What are your strongest subjects in school? What are your weakest subjects?

What is your favorite course you have taken in high school? Why?

What is your least favorite course you've taken? Why?

What do you like best about Boys' Latin?

What do you like least about Boys' Latin?

Which of the following options post-graduation are you considering? (Check all that apply. If you check more than one, put a star next to the option you think is your first choice.)

4-year college  trade or technical school

2-year college  full-time work

If you want to attend college, what do you think you might be interested in majoring in? ("I don't know" is a perfectly valid answer here.)

Do you have any specific career interests?

Do you feel your high school grades reflect your real ability? If not, why?

When you picture "college" in your mind, what do you see?

How far from Philadelphia do you want to be for college? (You can check more than one) within 30 miles  within 5-6 hours  the farther the better within 1-2 hours  within one day's driving distance  not sure yet within 3-4 hours  anywhere is fine

In what kind of place do you want your college to be? (Check as many as you like)

large city  small city  suburb  small town  rural area

How big do you want your college to be?

Fewer than 1000 students  1000-2000  2000-5000

5000-10,000  10,000+

If you'll consider a college with the following characteristic, check the box next to it:

All-male  Religiously-affiliated

Are you interested in considering a Historically Black College or University (HBCU)?

Do you want to play varsity sports in college? If so, which one(s)? At what level (Division I, II or III) do you hope to play? Have you been contacted by a college coach?

Do you want to play club-level sports in college? If so, which ones?

Would you prefer to attend a college that has a fraternity system?

Are there any other criteria that are important to you in a college?

Are there any particular colleges you're interested in exploring?

Is there anything else you think it would be helpful for me to know about you as we begin this process?

Thanks very much for taking the time to complete this questionnaire. Please drop it by my office (room 309) as soon as possible.