2019-2020 School Profile

La Salle High School was part of a large expansion program of secondary schools of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Archbishop Carl J. Alter of Cincinnati asked the Christian Brothers of the St. Louis Province to establish and staff the new school. Groundbreaking for La Salle High School was on March 1, 1959 with the first graduating class occurring in 1964. La Salle High School, accredited by Ohio Catholic Schools Accrediting Association, member of NCEA, and a Lasallian education institution affiliated with the Midwest District of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, is a selective, college preparatory high school primarily serving the north and west areas of Cincinnati, OH with approximately 685 young men in grades nine through twelve. Seventy-six percent of our student body comes from a Catholic grade school while 24% come from public and private junior high and middle schools. The school operates on a 7 class rotation on Monday Tuesday, and Friday with a 4 block rotation on Wednesday and Thursday.
