PERSONAL NARRATIVE

Prompt: Write a reflective personal narrative about your community service experience. Explain how your community service helps develop one of these National Junior Honor Society core values: leadership, character, or citizenship. To get started, describe a memorable experience (what happened?) during your community service using specific details. Then, share your response to this experience (what were your feelings or thoughts about this experience?). Finally, reflect on the connection to one of the core values: leadership, character, or citizenship (what lessons did you learn?).

Requirements:

- Must address the prompt
- Must be typed (Font: double spaced, size 12-14; Times New Roman or Arial)
- Must be stapled to this application
- Minimum of 250 words; maximum of 750 words. Include word count on the essay.

Essays will be read by the Honor Society Officers and Advisors. Students with notable essays may be asked to read at the Honor Society Induction Ceremony in May.*

COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS

Community Service Hours are those which are done for others (not including family members), for which no compensation (monetary or otherwise) has been given. Hours must be verified with a supervisor's signature. Community Service Hours must occur between May 1, 2019 – April 17, 2020.
