

WE DAY UN

8th Grade

On Wednesday, September 25, 2019, the 8th grade class will attend the WE Organization's WE Day UN as part of their Leadership Course. We are collaborating with the WE Organization this year in local and global service projects that the students will develop. WE Day UN is the kickoff for this year's programming, and schools from around the nation will attend. We are very excited to have been invited to participate.

There will be an early arrival time at school as buses will leave school at 7:45 AM. Students should arrive at school no later than 7:30 AM. Students must also pack a bag lunch, drink, and snack.

Attendance is mandatory.

More information about the event will follow as the date gets closer.
