READING FAIR GUIDELINES

The purpose of the Reading Fair Guidelines is to provide Reading Fair coordinators, students, and parents with directions for conducting and participating in a reading fair. These guidelines and resources must be used when submitting information for all competitions.

This document includes:

- alignment to the College-and Career-Ready Standards,
- guidelines for creating award-winning literary competition projects,
- and explanation of categories.

PURPOSE AND MS College-and Career-Readiness Standards CONNECTIONS

The purpose of the competition is to provide students in grades PreK-12 the opportunity to share their favorite fictional, nonfiction narrative, or informational book through a storyboard or digital media display. With the implementation of the Mississippi College-and Career-Readiness Standards (MS CCRS) for English Language Arts, World Languages, Visual Arts, and Early Childhood, an emphasis has been placed on student mastery of the skills and concepts necessary to read complex texts at each grade level, write texts using evidence, and create presentations that demonstrate imagination and effective use of various materials to express ideas. MS CCRS also places value on reading both literary and informational texts. In support of the MS CCRS, the goal of the Mississippi Reading Fair is to enhance and encourage reading at all grade levels and to allow students to collaborate with their peers. As a result of participating in this process, students will experience a deeper enjoyment from reading and develop a lifelong love of reading.

There are now only TWO levels of competition: Level 1 – School and Level 2 – District. Only first place winners in each division proceed to the next round of competition, which is the final round held at the District level.

READING FAIR CATEGORIES

- Students in grades 3-12 have the opportunity to share their favorite nonfiction book. All students deciding to do so are to compete in the Individual Divisions, within their specified grade group (Divisions G-I). All other entries should only represent Literary Fiction books.

NOTE: Remember the school's librarian is an excellent resource for determining if the book selected is indeed fictional. BOOKS DO NOT HAVE TO BE ON READING LEVEL. STUDENTS HAVE FREE CHOICE IN SELECTING A BOOK FOR THE READING FAIR.

- Group/Family Division projects should portray a book appropriate to the age of the student(s). The student(s) should be very knowledgeable about the book's story elements and should have an active part in the construction of the display. Family and Group Divisions will be judged closely on whether the project shows work appropriate for the age level of the student.

NOTE: Each student is limited to participating in only one project. Each Group Division project must have 2 to 3 students. If a group project has students in various grades, the project should be placed in the division of the oldest student. The projects should reflect the creative and originality of the students in the group.

- English Language Learners can create bilingual presentations to represent their native language as well as English. Each presentation element must be translated into English for judging. Elements not translated will have points deducted.

STORYBOARD PROJECTS

Size

- A standard tri-fold project board that unfolds to be approximately 36" H x 48" W.

NOTE: Boards that do not meet the size requirements will be disqualified, even if they proceed to the DISTRICT final level competition.

Display/Safety

- Use the checklists as a guide for creating the project.
- Identifying information (name of the student(s), category and division, student's grade level, homeroom teacher's name, school and district name) should be labeled on the back of the storyboard. If any identifying information is placed on the front of the storyboard, the project will be disqualified.
- Only students may present the projects during the judging - even for the family projects. If a student needs accommodations, please submit the Students Needing Accommodations Form for additional adult supervision.

- Storyboards should be colorful and interesting. Models, shadow boxes, and illustrations that fit in the middle of the display are allowed. The total project should meet the required the width, depth or height of the standing display board (approximately 36" W x 14" D x 36" H of table space). There cannot be items protruding from the back or top of the board.
- No items should hang over the edge of the table or be placed on the floor. However, students may hold or wear items that coordinate with the project, if desired. Items used for the project are not to be alive, valuable, or dangerous, including dry ice.
- Items on the project board may be handwritten or typed. Younger students may require assistance in writing, typing, spelling, cutting, etc. This is permissible and part of the learning process. See Divisions A, B, J, K, and L regarding Family and Group Divisions.

NOTE: Storyboard content should match the age, grade level, and ability of the students presenting the project. Students do not have to bring or display the book during the competition.

- Students and teachers are encouraged to accompany their projects throughout all levels of competition; however, the student's presence is not required. All projects will be fairly judged regardless of the student's attendance.
- Projects must be able to withstand several levels of competitions to prevent the student from rebuilding the project at each level. The intent of this competition is for the same project to be judged at different levels.
- Electrical cords are not allowed at any level of competition due to the potential danger they pose in the aisles.
- No food or drinks can be used with the projects. Empty packages may be used as part of the display or on the display board.

DIGITAL MEDIA PROJECTS

In a continued effort to bring technology to the classroom, the Reading Fair will feature digital presentations. Only Divisions E, F, H, I, K, and L can present Digital Media Projects.

- Winners are NOT based on grade levels.

READING FAIR TIMELINE

School Reading Fair Dates may fall between: September 3rd through November 1st

Announcement of District Reading Fair Winners: November 7th at 3:30 p.m. at the Family Resource Center located in Brandon, MS.

LITERARY FICTION

NOTE: Religious narratives (including retellings or alternate versions) fall into this category.

INFORMATIONAL NONFICTION

The first component of informational nonfiction is genre. Genres of nonfiction can be identified by one single factor: the intent or purpose of the writing. On the other hand, genres of fiction blend together. For instance, a fantasy story can have characteristics of an adventure story, but not all adventure stories are fantasies. Genres of nonfiction are more clearly defined than fiction. They explain the intent of the author or the purpose of the material.

The five main genres of nonfiction are:

1. Instructional: Describes how something is done or made.
2. Explanatory: Tells what happened or how something works, with defined reasons.
3. Report: Tells how things are discovered.
4. Discussion: Looks at both sides of an idea and makes a decision.
5. Opinion/Argument: Decides on a point-of-view and has reasons to support the view.

Students should be aware of the variety and format of the structures of nonfictional text. Some structures or formats of nonfiction can be seen within a variety of text. For example, a speech can be instructional, explanatory, a report, an opinion, or a discussion. On the contrary, a recipe is considered instructional. This is one thing that makes nonfictional text so unique. The structure can take on different tones and formats depending on the author's intent.

Students may select from the following nonfiction formats to complete literary competition projects:

- Autobiographies
- Biographies
- Book/movie reviews
- Consumer Reports articles
- Debates
- Editorials
- Essays
- Interviews
- Journals
- Observations
- Presentations
- Proposals
- Reports
- Speeches

Abraham Lincoln Walks at Midnight

In Springfield, Illinois

IT is portentous, and a thing of state
That here at midnight, in our little town
A mourning figure walks, and will not rest,
Near the old court-house, pacing up and down.

Or by his homestead, or by shadowed yards
He lingers where his children used to play,
Or through the market, on the well-worn stones
He stalks until the dawn-stars burn away.
