

Tri-M Music HONOR SOCIETY

The Tri-M Music Honor Society is the international music honor society for middle/junior high and high school students. It is designed to recognize students for their academic and musical achievements, reward them for their accomplishments and service activities, and to inspire other students to excel at music and leadership. It is a program of the National Association for Music Educators.

The Fuqua School Chapter of the Tri-M Music Honor Society is being chartered in the 2015-2016 school year. The purpose of the Fuqua School chapter is to recognize high school students for their musical achievements and leadership roles within the Fuqua School Band Program.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Enrolled as a student in grades 10-12
2. Been a senior band student for a cumulative of one year (two semesters)
3. Been a member of band each year of high school that the student was enrolled in school
4. Achieved a minimum GPA of 3.5 in music classes
5. Meets Fuqua School's minimum standard for overall GPA (not on academic probation)
6. Participated in an honor band (such as District Band or Longwood Honors Band)
7. Proven musicianship and dedication to music (examples include solos, leadership positions, music involvement outside of school)
8. Participated in all school music performances while enrolled in band

Membership Requirements:

Once students are inducted into the Tri-M Music Honor Society, they will elect officers for their chapter. Members will also work together to determine service projects that they would like to complete to support their school and community. To maintain membership, students must maintain eligibility requirements and participate in their Tri-M chapter.
