Digital Citizenship Announcements Week: Information Literacy 9/20/19

Here are a few words of wisdom regarding digital citizenship. This week, we are focusing on Information Literacy. Information literacy is the ability to identify, find, evaluate, and use information effectively. Evaluating the quality and credibility of a source and giving it credit are information literacy skills. At Maryville City Schools, we recommend that each person: Start thinking about how you find information online and what you do with that information. Are you using good online searching strategies to efficiently get to credible information? Are you careful to always give your sources credit? Use these next few weeks to evaluate your information literacy.

APPRENTICESHIP MEETING: 7th - 12th grade students and parents are invited to join us on the Pellissippi State (Blount Co) Campus on Thursday, September 19th for an information session that has the potential to change lives. In partnership with the three local school districts, area employers, Pellissippi, and TCAT Knoxville, paid apprenticeships will soon be offered - giving high school juniors and seniors an opportunity to finish high school, earn college credit, and earn a wage while gaining valuable work experience. This is our first public session and one you will not want to miss.

Again, the date is September 19th. Registration starts at 4:30 p.m. (in the auditorium), and the 90 minute program will begin at 5 p.m. There will also be a time to connect with employers and educators starting at 6:30 p.m. While younger students will not be eligible for this program for several years, you will want to learn as much as possible to enhance your selection potential when the time comes. Current high school students with an interest in health care, manufacturing, construction, culinary arts, or information technology should be in attendance.
