Travel to Portugal

International travel has been an important part of the experience of many Marianapolis students for years, and we are excited to extend the benefits of group travel to the adults in our community – our alumni, our parents, and our faculty and staff. Just as we have used EF Tours for our student tours, we are partnering with Go Ahead Tours, an EF Brand, which offers an elevated experience of group travel for adults. Our first tour – Venice, Florence, and Rome – in 2016, held in tandem with the student tour to Italy in 2017, was very successful. As students have the opportunity to "Discover Portugal" in March 2019, we invite you to take part in Food and Wine: A Taste of Portugal in June 2019.

The itinerary includes a dedicated tour director, smaller groups, excellent hotels, a cooking class, and much more. You will visit Porto, the Douro Valley, the Alentejo Region, a cork farm, and Lisboa. Flights, optional excursions, and an extended stay in Lisboa can be viewed on the website as well.

Please reach out to Joseph Parodi-Brown with any questions at jparodi@marianapolis.org or by calling Marianapolis at 860-923-9565.
