4-H TEEN SCIENCE AMBASSADORS

About the Program

4-H Teen Science Ambassadors receive focused lesson training from 4-H staff, and then can share those projects with community members or lead them for younger youth through supervised, organized activities. Each fall, 4-H Science Ambassadors learn the 4-H National Youth Science Day project. The 2019 program Game Changers was developed in conjunction with Google and focuses on Computer Science.
