Lexia an interactive computer program for language arts is now being used by the school.

Two parents have stepped up to direct and produce the school play in March. Lara Lewis and April Maughan. It will be "The Candy Bomber"

Kindness week will be in October

Hope week will be in February with Hank Smith as a guest speaker

There will be a family Stem activity in April

Hope Squad was discussed and teachers mentioned that they had felt like there had been a decrease in recess incidents among their students this year. Mrs. Johnston said they will look at data over a month-long period to see what incidents are happening and what student populations they are affecting.

We discussed how the no homework policy was working for parents and students at home and there was a consensus that there should be some increased two-way communication between parents and teachers about
