

In Kindergarten I Can...

Reading

- I can explore story topic.
- I can explore who is in the story and what the story is it about.
- I can choose illustrations that go with the story.
- I can tell the difference between illustrations and words in a story.
- I can recognize familiar books.
- I can identify the front cover of a book.
- I can identify major events in familiar stories.

Writing

- I can tell the difference between letters and other shapes.
- I can choose a book and communicate a feeling about it.
- I can express an opinion.
- I can select an event and write about it.
- I can communicate information about a personal experience.

Math

- I can count from 1 to 10.
- I can touch each object once as I count.
- I can explore concepts of more and less.
- I can put together and take from.
- I can count objects from a larger set.
- I can classify objects by attribute.
- I can match shapes.