

Upper School Art Position
October 2019

Job Title: Art Teacher
Department: Upper School, Fine Arts
Reports to: Mr. Eric Hedinger, Head of Upper School
FLSA Status: Exempt
PDS Status: Teacher, full-time, benefited

This position is a full-time teaching position beginning August, 2020.

Responsibilities: The Upper School Art Teacher will report to the Head of Upper School and will be responsible for teaching four art classes to students in grades 9-12. In addition to the normal teaching responsibilities, this person will advise a group of 10 students, and perform periodic duty assignments (lunch, traffic, advisor, etc.).

Qualifications: A bachelor's degree in art or art education is required and three or more years teaching experience is preferred. The ideal candidate will have a solid understanding of both western and non-western art history and knowledge of drawing and painting techniques, printmaking, and sculpture/3-D design. Curricular experience in AP Art History is preferred. The applicant should have a strong academic background and possess proficient technology skills. The candidate should have superb organizational skills, excellent verbal and written communication skills, and the ability to work effectively as a team member.

Salary and Benefits: Providence Day School is committed to attracting and retaining outstanding employees through a compensation plan that compares favorably with those of other independent schools both locally and nationwide. Individual salary levels are competitive and are determined by educational background and experience. A full benefits package includes TIAA retirement, medical/dental coverage, and more.

Application Process: Applicants should submit a cover letter of interest, current resume, three letters of recommendation, and a list of references with telephone numbers. Materials should be sent to the provided email address.

PDS.upperscholarartteacher@providenceday.org

Providence Day School is an equal opportunity employer (EOE).