“REACH FOR THE STARS, KEEP FEET ON THE GROUND”

HOWEVER, as University Advisors, we are going to assess your grades, predicted grades, SAT/ACT scores, subject exam scores, letters of recommendation, AND your experiences.

Therefore...

- We are going to be realistic
- We are going to be 100% honest with you (don't be discouraged)
- Present various options that are the best fit for you

Write down the important codes for your tests/applications.

Application	Code
College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) *for SATs	796570
UCAS (UK)	leysin2020
Common App (US)	Each create own account

Think about the SAT/ACT testing requirements.

SAT &amp; Subject Tests	ACT
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Admissions test for US universities/colleges</li><li>● We are an SAT test centre</li><li>● Important date: October 5</li><li>● Encourage to retake if your unhappy with results (3rd time = raises eyebrows)</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Standardized test as well</li><li>● Very similar to SAT</li><li>● No advantage of taking one test over the other (in terms of university acceptance)</li></ul>

Students do tend to do both tests.
Not necessary.

Think about the IELTS testing requirements.

Passports from:
Australia, UK, USA,
Canada, New Zealand

This does NOT apply to you! (3 or 6
year rule in English language curriculum)

Passports from other countries

Please register IMMEDIATELY !
IELTS Registration with Mr.
Deupree on Thursday @ 3p.m.
(R15)*

It is the student's responsibility to send the test scores to different universities (not advisors).

For UK/Australia - you will need this for your visas.

Consider and get to know the ED, EDII, Restrictive Early Action, and Early Action (US)

*These are all ways of applying to a school before Regular Decision

Early Decision 1 (EDI)	Early Decision 2 (EDII)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Applications are due November.</li><li>● Decision made mid-December</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Applications are due early January.</li><li>● Decision made in February.</li></ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Legally binding agreement that if you are accepted you will attend the school</li><li>● Can improve your chances of getting in BUT carefully weight pros/cons (if accepted)</li><li>● Can only apply to ONE</li><li>● If admitted, you are to apply to any schools Regular Decision</li></ul>

Consider and get to know the ED, EDII, Restrictive Early Action, and Early Action (US)

*These are all ways of applying to a school before Regular Decision

Early Action (non-restrictive)	Restrictive Early Action (REA)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Non-binding early application</li><li>● Can apply to multiple schools EA and EDI schools</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Non-binding early application</li><li>● You are not allowed to apply to any other private university Early Action or Early Decision</li><li>● Not obligated to attend if admitted</li></ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Both are due in November - decisions made mid-to-late December</li><li>● Both are NON-BINDING (if you're admitted, you're under no obligation to attend)</li></ul>

Think about teachers who you could ask to write you a recommendation letter.

- ◆ Letters are 85% focused on ACADEMICS
- ◆ NOT a character reference
- ◆ 2 letters are needed for US Universities
- ◆ UK has a different process
- ◆ LAS teachers will participate in workshops on how to write a recommendation letter
- ◆ Additional considerations:
  - ◇ Asking teachers who are no longer at LAS (not recommended)
  - ◇ Choosing teachers you like best (mmmm)
  - ◇ Asking too late (ugh)
