

Substitutes Grades PK-5

Berkeley Preparatory School, an outstanding independent coeducational day school in Tampa, Florida, places an emphasis on academic excellence with a spirit of social responsibility. Students of all ages to exchange ideas and explore ethics as they define their attitudes and values. Berkeley educates the whole child by nurturing students' intellectual, emotional, spiritual and physical development so that they may attain their highest potential. Berkeley has built a national reputation for academic rigor at the country's most prestigious universities. The school's active Episcopal affiliation focuses on inclusivity, support, respect, and the shared values reflected in Berkeley's vision statement, Berkeley puts people in the world who make a positive difference.

Berkeley Preparatory School is seeking substitute teachers for grades Pre-kindergarten through fifth grade for the 2019-2020 school year. Substitutes are expected to provide supervision and instruction and are responsible for the implementation of lesson plans, management of the classroom, and for ensuring student learning. Experience teaching or working with children is preferred. A good sense of humor, a positive outlook, and an appreciation of the unique qualities of the age group are essential.

Located on a gorgeous 80-acre campus, Berkeley serves 1,300 students in Grades PK-12. The school continues to experience strong interest and full enrollment, and is marked with a very strong positive school culture. Berkeley's faculty, staff and student body reflects the diversity of its surrounding communities.
