

Calling all current and future flutists:

Do you want to...

- Improve your technique?
- Become more musical?
- Learn how to play confidently?
- Improve your flute playing?

If so, please contact Lisa Gorham to set up private lessons for the summer.

Lisa is a graduate of both Beecher Road School (class of 2009) and Amity Regional High School (class of 2015). She has been the Principal Flautist in the Greater New Haven Youth Orchestra for the past two years, and has participated for three years. She has attended Greenwood Music Camp in Cummington, MA for five summers. Lisa has also been the resident flautist in Neighborhood Music School's Premier Woodwind Quintet the past two years. This past May, she soloed the Nielsen Flute Concerto with the Greater New Haven Youth Orchestra after she won the concerto competition the year prior. Next year, she will be a freshman at Washington University in St. Louis and will be studying flute with Mark Sparks, the Principal flautist of the St. Louis Symphony.
