

Eric Zeiser

Trumpet and Brass Instruction

Eric Zeiser is a graduate of Western Connecticut State University with a degree in music performance and a graduate of the University of Bridgeport with a Master of Science in Education. `Eric is currently an intern an Beecher Road School in Woodbridge, CT and has just accepted positions in New Canaan and New Haven for his clinical placements this fall. In addition to working in education, Eric has also been a professional touring and recording musician for 5 years. My goals for private students are:

- Give students a solid technical foundation to build extended skills upon.
- Make technical and musical goals explicit and relevant to each student!

- Provide students with a personalized regimen of instruction that helps them in way most appropriate to their current level and musical goals. This follows along the teachings of Carmine Caruso and Laurie Frink.
- Encourage students to create, perform, and connect with the musical activities they engage in.

- Time: Available in 30 and 60 minute sessions.

30-$45 // 60-$60
