CHECK YOUR STATUS!

If you checked Principal:

- ___ 1.) If I am offered and accept the role of a principal character, I will commit to attending all rehearsals that involve my character.
- ___ 2.) I understand that all principals are allowed to miss a maximum of three (3) rehearsals.
- ___ 3.) If I am cast as a principal character, I agree to completely learn my lines and music by the date set by the director.
- ___ 4.) If I am cast as a principal character, I understand that my attendance at the following rehearsal/performance dates is mandatory:

Saturday, March 14 – Tech rehearsal ALL DAY

Monday, March 16 – Dress rehearsal

Tuesday, March 17 – All day rehearsal & full dress rehearsal

Wednesday, March 18 – Two school performances

Thursday, March 19 – OPENING NIGHT

Friday, March 20 – SECOND PUBLIC SHOW

Saturday, March 21 – CLOSING NIGHT

Monday, March 23 - Strike of set, after school.

If you checked Ensemble:

- ___ 5.) I understand that an ensemble member is allowed to miss a maximum of five (5) rehearsals.
- ___ 6.) I understand that my attendance is mandatory on Saturday, March 14 – Tech rehearsal.
- ___ 7.) I can devote the time required for this production without jeopardizing my academic achievement.
- ___ 8.) I understand that I must be present for school on the same day as musical activities in order to participate. At the same time, an excused absence for school is an excused absence for that day of musical.

ALL who are auditioning must initial the following:

- ___ 9.) I will approach the problems of rehearsing and performing a complex musical production with enthusiasm, energy, and a positive attitude. I understand the essentials of COOPERATION and DISCIPLINE within the performing arts. Therefore, I understand that if I become a “problem” rather than a “solver” then I am jeopardizing my position in the production.

____ 10.) I understand that all MOBILE/SMART devices and all other media is not allowed in the rehearsal space at any time. I understand that if I disobey this rule my device will be taken and not returned until the end of that rehearsal. If this MEDIA RULE is broken two (2) times, the device will be immediately taken at the beginning of every rehearsal and not returned until the end.

____ 11.) I understand that some characters require the actor to temporarily alter his/her appearance, that includes hair, makeup, and costume. This is to fit the description from the script.
