Student Name: _____ Start Date: _____ End Date: : _____

Time	150 #
	150
	145
	140
	135
	130
	125
	120
	115
	110
	105
	100
	95
	90
	85
	80
	75
	70
	65
	60
	55
	50
	45
	40
	35
	30
	25
	20
	15
	10
	5
	Date
	Start Time
	Setting

GREEN

All is good. There may be some unexpected behaviors but nothing to be alarmed about or the behavior is being exhibited by other peers. Behaviors include:

_____

_____

_____

YELLOW

Behavior is isolated the student who is becoming upset. The following signals are being given:

_____

_____

_____

ORANGE

Behavior is now affecting student in close proximity. The student is upset and engaging in the following behavior:

_____

_____

_____

RED

Behavior is disrupting everyone. Behavior consists of:

_____

_____

_____

BLACK

Behavior has become very dangerous resulting in Room Clear and/or removal from the setting. Behavior includes:

_____

_____

_____