

SISTER ANNE Scholarship

This scholarship is established by the Congregation of the Sisters of the Resurrection in honor and loving memory of Sister Anne Strzelecka, C.R. In 1912 Sister Anne bought farmland upon which Resurrection College Prep High School was built. Sister Anne initiated the building of the high school. Like the foundresses of the Sisters of the Resurrection Sister Anne was committed to the education of women and believed that women have a special call from God to, help transform society according to Gospel values. She was a religious woman of deep faith, a model leader with a commitment to serving the needs of others and committed to helping young women develop their God given talents and achieve their dreams.
