TSI Critical Reading Tutorials

You were within 10 points of passing the TSI Critical Reading Assessment in the summer. As such, you have earned the privilege to test again sooner than everyone else on Tuesday, October 22nd during school. In order to cash in on the privilege, you must attend 4 afternoon tutorials to ensure that you are prepared and ready to test again. Morning tutorials are also available, but they only count for .5 tutorials (you must attend 2 morning tutorials to equal an afternoon tutorial).

Mrs. Acevedo has contacted your coaches, directors, and sponsors to let them know that this is the expectation as you have to pass this test in order to stay on track for your college courses.

Please circle and commit to 4 of the 7 tutorials offered below (you may attend more if you can/want to). If you do not attend at least 4 tutorials, you will forfeit the privilege of taking the test in October, and you will be unable to test again until November 13th. If you have a special circumstance, please let Mrs. Cash know ASAP.

I, _____, commit to attending the circled tutorial dates. I commit to:

- work hard in these tutorials
- surrender my cell phone from 2:50-4:00.

I understand that if I am being disruptive, disrespectful, or rude, the tutorial teacher can ask me to leave, and I will not get credit for attending the tutorial.
