

First Flight High School

Driver's Education Classroom Requirements and Expectations

Classroom instruction will be a minimum of 30 hours. All scheduled classes must be attended. No tardiness or early dismissals will be allowed. The school building doors are locked for security.

To pass the classroom, students must score 70% or higher on the exit exam and have attended all scheduled classes. Failure to pass the classroom prohibits the student from receiving behind-the-wheel instruction.

Absolutely no misconduct or horseplay will be tolerated. Instructors have the right to dismiss a student from class on any day of the classroom instruction. Adult behavior is required. Students who cannot follow directions in class will not be able to follow directions in the car.

Students that are dismissed from the driver education class due to behavior or attendance issues will not be eligible to re-enroll until the following school year.

Absolutely no tobacco or alcohol products allowed during class or on school campus, before class or after class. This will result in immediate dismissal from class.

Cell phones should NOT be seen or heard during class. 1st occurrence, the phone will be taken and given back at the end of class; 2nd occurrence, the student will be dismissed from class.

Students must stay in designated areas indicated by the instructor at all times. Please remember we are GUESTS; there is to be NO roaming of the hallways. Students located in areas not designated by the instructor will be dismissed.

Students are not dismissed from class until the instructor dismisses the class.

Transportation home must be available within 15 minutes after the dismissal of class. No loitering on campus.

Participating in a driver education course is a privilege NOT a right. Driving is a legal privilege and responsibility.
