Warriors of the Week

Our Warrior of the Week has all A's and B's and first honors level grades. He is always focused on instruction and completing the tasks that are assigned to him. He remains in his seat, is quiet, is respectful, and is a model student all around. He completes his own work and tries hard. He is always on time to school and on time to class and in full uniform. He is super polite and respectful to all of his peers and his teachers. He is a peer that any of his classmates can turn to for whatever they need. He is a very relaxed and super calm student. He has a really chill presence about him that is an asset to any classroom. For his brotherhood, integrity and scholarship, I am pleased to announce Nasean Young as our Warrior of the Week
