

AFFIDAVIT FOR COMPULSORY EDUCATION EXEMPTION
DAVIS SCHOOL DISTRICT

Under Utah State law a parent/guardian is required to enroll and send a school-age minor (6-18) to a public or private school. A school-age minor shall be excused from attendance by the local board of education if the school-age minor's parent/guardian files a signed and notarized affidavit with the school-age minor's school district of residence. The signed and notarized affidavit filed with the District Student Services Department shall remain in effect as long as the school-age minor attends a home school, and the Davis School District remains the school-age minor's district of residence. School-aged minors excused from attendance under the law shall be issued a Compulsory Education Attendance Exemption Certificate for Home instruction annually from the District.

If the student will be attending one or more classes in Davis School District please indicate subjects to be attended at school.

Please check if either statement applies to your student. (Not required)

My student may have a disability which could qualify him/her for state or federal services consistent with the individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) 20 U.S.C. 1401 et seq. Please contact me with further information.

My student has an individual Education Plan (IEP) under IDEA. My decision to home school does not imply that the public school has not offered a free and appropriate public education. I understand that my student will no longer receive services under the IEP, unless they are dual enrolled in Davis School District.
