

Sand Springs Community Council November 4th meeting has been cancelled to allow Community Council Members attend one of the State or District trainings held this month.

Our next meeting will be in February.