

Student Acceptable Use Guidelines

Outline

- Access to the District's system is a privilege, not a right.
- District computer/network/Internet usage shall not be considered confidential and is subject to monitoring by designated staff at any time to ensure appropriate use.
- System users are required to maintain password confidentiality by not sharing their password with others. System users may not use another person's system account.
- A student who gains access to objectionable material is expected to discontinue the access as quickly as possible and to report the incident to the supervising teacher.
- Modifying or changing computer settings and/or internal or external configurations is prohibited.
- Students may not install software or hardware to district systems.
- Use of the system for promoting activities or events for individuals or organizations not directly affiliated with or sanctioned by the District is prohibited.
- You may not use district resources for Political Lobbying, Forgery or Junk Mail/Chain Letters.
- Use of the system for any type of income-generating activity is prohibited. Advertising the sale of products, whether commercial or personal is prohibited.
- Students must always respect copyrights and trademarks of third-parties and their ownership claims in images, text, video and audio material, software, information and inventions.
- Students may not redistribute or forward confidential information.
- Deleting, examining, copying, or modifying files and/or data belonging to other users, without their permission is prohibited.
- Cyber bullying includes, but is not limited to, the following misuses of technology: harassing, teasing, intimidating, threatening, or terrorizing another student or staff member by way of any technological tool, such as sending or posting inappropriate or derogatory email messages, instant messages, text messages, digital pictures or images, or website postings (including blogs) which has the effect of:
 - Physically, emotionally or mentally harming a student;
 - Placing a student in reasonable fear of physical, emotional or mental harm;
 - Placing a student in reasonable fear of damage to or loss of personal property; or
 - Creating an intimidating or hostile environment that substantially interferes with a student's educational opportunities.
- District students are bound by all portions of the District's Acceptable Use Guidelines.

Please see the Student Acceptable Use Guidelines for complete information.