

North Broward Preparatory School is now accepting applications from qualified candidates for the position of Percussion Instructor (hourly) to begin immediately.

The Percussion Instructor (hourly) is responsible for teaching private lessons and percussion sectionals to students in grades 4-12. This position works collaboratively with the Fine Arts faculty and staff, Director of Bands, Music Department Coordinator, and reports to the Director of Fine Arts.

Requirements:

- Passionate drive for excellence in music education
- Strong desire to foster a positive environment and motivate percussion students
- Excellent communication skills
- Highly effective organizational skills
- Strong work ethic
- Bachelor's degree in music
- Experience instructing students grades 4-12

North Broward Preparatory School, Coconut Creek, FL, is an international community committed to accelerating each student's academic achievement and personal growth. <http://www.nbps.org>

North Broward Preparatory School is part of the Juilliard - Nord Anglia Performing Arts Program, a unique collaboration with The Juilliard School, one of the world's leading performing arts schools. The North Broward Preparatory School is deeply committed to arts education. Our Music Program is an essential part of our curricula, school culture, and plays a critical role in our students' academic growth.

For consideration, applicants should submit the following materials:

- Resume with references