Beginning French (grades 2-5)

Bonjour! Learn the basics of the French language, culture, what students in France experience on a typical school day and discover the other countries where French is spoken. New and returning students welcome! Students will meet in the library each morning for class. Candice Servant was born and raised in France and just recently moved to Minnesota with her family. Candice taught English before moving to the United States and loves to share her culture and experiences growing up in France with others.
