Guest Speaker--Welcome.....My name is Chelsea McCall, Dallas/Fort Worth Program Coordinator with Common Threads. Common Threads is a national nonprofit that focuses on cooking and nutrition education in schools and community spaces. The programming is free to schools/partners who qualify. After researching your school district, we found that all elementary and middle schools qualify for our program through SNAP eligibility guidelines. We currently partner with FWISD Afterschool, Dallas ISD and are looking to expand our reach in Dallas and Tarrant Counties. Our Programs are:

- TEKS aligned
- Next Generation Science Standard aligned
- National Health Education Standard aligned with STEM and STEAM supplements

We would like to explore potential opportunities to partner with your schools either during in-school time or after-school time.
