JOB DESCRIPTION

JIS is seeking to employ dynamic and enthusiastic newly qualified teachers (NQT'S) to support its increasing English language provision. We are offering the opportunity to become part of an exciting new development at JIS, enabling successful candidates to develop advanced teaching skills developed through careful mentoring, supported by outstanding professional learning opportunities. You will be able to access a rigorous induction to the teaching profession that will enable you to become, very quickly, leaders of learning in schools that you go on to work in. The role will include:

- A flexible programme that runs for a preferred length of two years. However, due to MoE commitments, we are prepared to reduce this to one term for suitable candidates
- A timetable that enables peer observation and professional development
- An appointed mentor that leads your induction programme
- A professional studies programme that covers key aspects of working in a leading educational environment (safeguarding, assessment, trip planning, parental communication, student support and intervention for example)
- The building of a professional portfolio against the Brunei Teacher Standards
- Access to outstanding professional development opportunities - learning from leading teachers trained in the world's leading education systems
- Induction into the latest evidence based teaching strategies, supported by digital technology
- Developing 21st Century approaches to teaching and learning
- Training on coaching to support future work in local schools
- The opportunity to develop creative approaches to teaching and learning
- Access to a digital device (ipad/laptop) whilst you work at JIS
- Opportunity to gain valuable experience from the school's yearly Summer Camp programme
- Free accommodation for those candidates willing to be part of our thriving boarding community

Person Specification:

- Bruneian citizenship and Permanent Residents (Yellow and Red I.C. holders).
- Undergraduate Degree from a recognised leading University in UK/Australia/Canada/USA etc
- Recognised teaching qualification, e.g. Mteach
- The ability to speak Mandarin would be an advantage

For bonded Ministry of Education scholars, the induction programme will be flexible enough to meet your prior commitments.
