

April 2016- American Occupational Therapy Association -Presentations- Chicago:

Dr. Elaina DaLomba presented "The effects of sensory processing and maladaptive behaviors of young children on parent participation" at the AOTA 2016 conference in Chicago. [peer reviewed poster].

Dr. Joseph Cipriani presented a short course at the AOTA conference in Chicago 2016 titled "International Missions Uniting the Host Agency, Professionals, Educators and Students: How the Collaborative Model Works", with colleagues Carol Doehler of the New England Institute of Technology, Erica Pincomb of Western Michigan U., and Darcy Williams, of Mustard Seed Communities, Jamaica.

Weekend students Diane Brett; Colleen Magacs; Theresa Stoecker; Leighanne Murphy; presentation called "Factors Influencing Faculty Recruitment & Possible Options for Hiring New Faculty in OT Programs." along with Dr. Lalit Shah at AOTA Conference in Chicago April 2016. [peer reviewed poster].

Weekend OT students Melinda Orkwis, Katarzyna Bialek, and Jessica Jansson; presentation of "Study of Pre-Handwriting Factors Necessary for Successful Handwriting in Children" along with Dr. Lalit Shah at AOTA Conference in Chicago April 2016.[peer reviewed- poster].

Logan Zeitler, Kelsey Maas, Danielle Makadon-Malone, and Carly Zaklukiewicz; Dr. Ellen Mclaughlin, Dr. Lori Charney "Linking Sensory Strategies and Social Skills Training to Improve the Social Participation in Children with ASD." [peer reviewed poster].

Kellie Campbell, Emily Iseminger, Jenna Pendleton, and Christine Tietsworth, Dr. Grace Fisher, "Lived Experiences of the Oldest Old"- [peer reviewed poster].

Amanda Cobucci, Maria Weidemoyer, and Brittany Lohr, Dr. Lauren Zack. "Experience from the Field: Implementation & Evaluation of Multi-Sensory Stimulation in Geriatric Practice," [peer reviewed poster].