

MS Parent Coffee: Flexible Learning Communities

11 November 2019

COMMUNITY NORMS

As an SAS community member I agree to hold myself to a high standard of personal conduct in my interactions and communications with students, faculty, and parents. This means I will adhere to the SAS Statement of Community by:

- Contributing productively and positively
- Refraining from discrimination (religious, ethnic, racial, sexual, or gender)
- Going to the source
- Sharing accurate information
- Assuming positive intent

Today's Learning Targets

- Parents will be able to explain why flexible learning environments are beneficial to student learning.
- Develop shared understanding of how we gather feedback, make adjustments, and measure efficacy.
- Reflect on next steps.

U.S. WATCHING WHILE 2 ALLIES CLASH IN SYRIA
The Turkish offensive, carried out over the past several days, was the first since the U.S. and its allies began their campaign against Islamic State in Syria last year. The U.S. and its allies have been watching the conflict from the sidelines, but the Turkish attack has changed that. The U.S. is now being forced to choose between supporting the Kurds, who are fighting against ISIS, and supporting the Turks, who are fighting against the Kurds. The U.S. is now being forced to choose between supporting the Kurds, who are fighting against ISIS, and supporting the Turks, who are fighting against the Kurds.

SHUTDOWN ENDS, SETTING UP CLASH OVER 'DREAMERS'
The House and Senate have agreed on a deal to end the government shutdown, but it has left many issues unresolved. The deal includes a provision for the DACA program, but it does not address the issue of Dreamers. The deal also includes a provision for the DACA program, but it does not address the issue of Dreamers.

Tax-Law Bonuses Veil a Bonanza for Companies
The new tax law includes a number of provisions that will benefit companies. The most significant of these is the provision that allows companies to deduct the full cost of new equipment. This provision will allow companies to deduct the full cost of new equipment, which will result in a significant increase in their tax deductions.

How do Learning Communities Address Students' Different Time Needs

More adults available to address learning needs

Teams developing flex schedules

- Launch an interdisciplinary unit
- Teach interdisciplinary workshops
- Host guest speakers
- Allow for student voice and choice
- Address socio-emotional needs
- Develop tech/digital citizenship skills
- Exhibit student learning

Space

What type of spaces do you see here?
What do you notice about the furniture that is in the space?

The LEGO logo is displayed in its characteristic white, rounded font with a black outline, set against a red rectangular background.

Rules of Engagement

Work in whatever way makes you most effective
providing it doesnot impact the effectiveness of others

Use all facilities only as intended

Eating only in designated areas

No camping

No exceptions

What a learning community is NOT...

- 110 students in 1 open space
- Always noisy
- Incohesive
- A “free for all”
- Unscheduled
- Kids decide everything they learn

What a learning community IS ...

- Varied, dynamic and responsive
- Purposeful disciplinary connections
- Flexible student grouping
- Learning activities dictate the space
- Teachers have collective responsibility

Why Interdisciplinary Learning

Interdisciplinary learning activities can have a number of advantages for teachers and students. Interdisciplinary learning:

- allows students to develop an awareness of the interconnectedness that exist among the disciplines, and between disciplines and the real-world application of knowledge.
- focuses on higher-level thinking and decision making, which encourages students to become aware of and make choices about behaviours and thought processes they will be engaged in while learning.

Teacher Practice

The result? 6 key benefits that helped teachers and students succeed:

#1

Better instruction

100% of the study participants said their teaching improved—collaboration gave them more support to try new ideas and fine-tune activities.

Expanded teaching toolkit

Collaboration gave teachers access to more resources and promoted use of recommended instructional practices.

Lesson consistency

Teachers felt they were now on the same page in terms of planning and delivering instruction.

More inclusive methods

Conversations started focusing more on student learning and how to teach to different learning styles.

Increased student effort

Academic rigor shot up significantly as teachers developed core competencies they expected their students to meet.

Higher teacher responsibility

Teachers developed a greater sense of accountability for promoting student success and meeting school goals.

Some whys to consider...

Why learning communities?

Why flexibility?

Why collaboration?

Why learner as self-navigator? Creator? As innovative designer? Problem solver?

Why teacher as advocate and coach for learners?

So, how's it all going?

How do we know it's working?
