PAUL NARDOZZI CLASS OF 2003

He only allowed 19 hits in 53 innings of work as a senior. Nardozzi was named Victor's Male Athlete of the year in 2003.

After graduating from VCS, Nardozzi played baseball at the University of Pittsburg. In 2007, he had 90 strikeouts, the fourth highest in the Big East. He holds the school record for most games started (52) and second most strikeouts (268). In 2007, he was drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the 31st round. Nardozzi played baseball for the New England Collegiate Baseball League's Newport Gulls, where he notched 11 wins and 121 strikeouts in 121.2 innings with a 2.00 ERA. He holds the Gulls' record for the most strikeouts in a single season (66). Nardozzi was inducted into the Newport Gulls' Hall of Fame in 2019.

JESSICA (COTTON) SETTIMI CLASS OF 2004

Jessica (Cotton) Settimi was a three sport athlete at VCS. In 1998, she ran cross country. She played lacrosse from 1999 to 2004 and was a member of the swim team from 1999 to 2003. Settimi's lacrosse career began in the 7th grade. She was on the varsity team from 8th to 12th grade, and served as team captain from 2002 to 2004. In 2003, she led the Victor girls' team to their first ever sectional win. Other high school lacrosse accolades included being named Honorable Mention All-League in the 10th grade and First Team All-League in 11th and 12th grades. Settimi was also named Finger Lakes Offensive Player of the Year, the team's 2003 and 2004 Most Valuable Player and a 2004 Lacrosse Excellence Award Winner.

Settimi's five year swimming career at VCS (1999-2003) was marked by numerous achievements. She was team captain in 2013, First Team All-League her junior and senior years and a member of five sectional and Finger Lakes League Championship teams, including a sectional championship relay team. In 2000, Settimi was named to the Swimming Honor Roll in the Swimming World Magazine. In 2003, she was the recipient of the Swimming Excellence Award. She was a member of the Victor Swim Club and also coached and taught swimming through Victor Parks and Recreation and the Victor Swim Club.

After graduating from VCS, Settimi played lacrosse at Binghamtom University for one year. She was the only freshman to play in all of the games at the Division 1 school. She was also on the President's List there.

She transferred to RIT and played lacrosse for three years where she was team captain her junior and senior years. Settimi set three statistical records at RIT. In 2007, she was named to the Empire 8 President's List for a 4.0 GPA and in 2008 she was named Comeback Athlete of the Year.

Settimi's lacrosse career continued after RIT. She started a lacrosse program at the Royal Alexandra & Albert School in England. She also played for the Walcountian Blues Lacrosse team and the championship British lacrosse team at the 2010 World Lacrosse Festival. Settimi continued coaching lacrosse at St. Mary's School and the North Carolina Lacrosse Academy in Raleigh, North Carolina from 2009 to 2012.

Morocco Calling

2015 Alumnae Joins Peace Corps

On Thursday, September 5, 2019, Sarah Ballard, a 2015 VCS graduate, came to the Senior High School library to speak to members of the Global Competence Committee (GCC) about her new job as a Peace Corps volunteer.

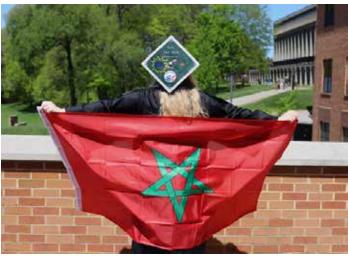

Ballard, a 2019 graduate of Kent State University, will spend the next two years in Morocco, the only Arabic speaking nation in North Africa. She will serve as a Youth Development Specialist, working with residents, ages 12 to 21 years old, until November 29, 2021.

Senior High School English Language Learner (ELL) teacher and GCC program advisor, Laurie Estochen, said Ballard's visit was inspiring. "The opportunity to see a student who has gone through the GCC program, finished college and is so passionate about impacting the world for good is incredibly powerful. Sarah's love for changing her world for the better began here in Victor, and has evolved into her mission on the Peace Corps field. GCC cannot wait to see what new adventures await Sarah," she said.

'74 Alumnae Was Area's First Medical Esthetician

Janice Dillman was never one for taking traditional paths. In 1974, she graduated from Victor
Senior

High School as a junior. Always the planner, Dillman opted out of the Regents diploma route knowing full well college wasn't in her future. "I was eager to be on my own and figure it out," Dillman said.

After graduation, Dillman worked in retail for one year before getting a job at Genesee Hospital in the Health Service division. She was there for about 11 years doing everything from medical records and billing to accounting. Dillman said you were trained on the job in those days because there was not any proper schooling or classes for medical records or billing.

At age 22, while working full time at the hospital, Dillman enrolled at the Continental School of Beauty where she took classes 20 hours a week in the evenings and on Saturdays to get her cosmetology license. That license took her to where she is today. "I would not have gone to cosmetology school if it was not for my sister, Lisa, who said it would be the perfect skill to have to make money while raising my family someday. I practiced cosmetology, esthetics (skin) and nails on a part time basis while working in doctors' offices," she said.

After working at Genesee Hospital, Dillman took a job in Medical Office Management at Rochester General Hospital in a private general surgeon's office. She was married with two children (Brandon, now 29 years old, and Veronica, now 27 years old). "When the kids were young, I worked parttime in a plastic surgeon's office doing office management. It was at that point I started doing medical esthetics, things like chemical peels and skin care, which was very big on the west coast, and very new on the east coast!"

Dillman said becoming the area's first medical esthetician just kind of happened and the aesthetics trade literally snow-balled overnight. During her early years, she worked at the Continental School of Beauty as an aesthetics instructor, overseeing the program for their three schools throughout New York State. That position led her to becoming the lead medical esthetician at a local medical spa which eventually closed its doors, only to reopen them under new ownership, none other than Janice Dillman.

It has been twelve years since Dillman opened seriouSkin, in Pittsford, New York – twelve years built on many more years of hard work, exploration, and extraordinary ingenuity. Dillman was never one for the traditional path, anyway.

Of all of her VCS teachers, Dillman credits her home economics teacher, Mrs. Greely, for being her biggest inspiration. "The life skills she taught gave me a solid foundation to head out into the world. My life journey was not planned, everything just happened. It was not anticipated, and yet, here I am today feeling grateful for everyone that has helped me," Dillman said.

advice to today's Victor students is exactly what you would expect from someone who has always marched to the beat of her own drum. "If college is for you, go for what you love, not for the newest degree that pays the best. Education is never wasted, you will use it in some way or another down the road. I strongly feel that this country lacks skilled Trades people with good work ethics. We need electricians, carpenters, masons, the list goes on," she said.

It turns out estheticians are in high demand today, too.

According to Reuters.com, the global cosmetic products market (which includes estheticians) was valued at USD 532.43 billion in 2017, and is expected to reach a market value of USD 805.61 billion by 2023.

Dillman currently lives in Webster, New York. She is always up for a new adventure! When she is not working, she enjoys riding her Harley with her boyfriend, snowmobiling, ATV riding, boating and RVing. She also enjoys gardening, sewing and cooking.

Dr. Laura A. Lane, Class of 1895

Pioneer Cancer Researcher and Organic Farmer

By Babette Huber, Victor Town and Village Historian Dr. Laura A. Lane (affectionately called "Doc Lane") was born in November, 1880, to Ambert T. and Amelia A. Parks Lane. Ambert Lane was a produce farmer who at times raised large quantities of seed potatoes varieties of potatoes with "eyes" from which farmers can plant and grow potatoes. Amelia Lane, a teacher and graduate of Oswego Normal School, was one of the Parks family who owned much land in the northwestern area of Victor (her family home being Parks Place on Rowley Road). The Lane family - Ambert, Amelia, Laura and sister, Florence, lived in a house (now demolished) across from Route 251 on Route 96. The existing Lane Road is named after the Lane family. It was officially named a town road after Dr. Lane died. Ambert and "Minnie" owned all the land from Lane Road on Route 96 to Rowley Road.

After graduating from Victor High School in 1895, Laura Lane went to live with an aunt in Ann Arbor, Michigan. She went to the University of Michigan and graduated from the Michigan Medical School. She soon became one of the first women to do cancer research there. In 1924 she was awarded the Knapp Memorial prize for her research work in the use of radium for the treatment of the eye.

In 1936 Dr. Lane reported at the clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons that ". . . an analysis of about 100,000 cases of cancer showed a markedly higher occurrence among individuals subject to continuous bright sunlight . . . and in patients following recovery from influenza."

Sometime in her career (date unknown) Dr. Lane had to retire because of radium damage to her hands. She eventually came back to her childhood home in Victor. That did not, however, prevent her from continuing her lectures. Jim Swartzenberg, whose family lived across from the Lane property on Rt. 96 (in what is now the India House and had originally been a one room schoolhouse) notes, "Now and then she would dress up in a black suit with a veiled hat of the sort nature women wore in those days, stand out by the road, and flag down the Greyhound bus when it came by. Most of the time she was going to the University of Rochester where she lectured on the hidden dangers in processed

Dr. Laura Lane was the forerunner of "Garbage in, garbage out" as she spoke out in favor of organic farming. She promoted a healthy living style which included exercise and nonchemical vegetables. Dr. Lane believed very strongly that much of the processed and chemically induced foods that we eat was what was causing cancers.

As a medical doctor, Laura Lane became a natural healer to many. One such person was Bernard Cleary whose mother had died when he was almost 3 and he was very sickly. Dr. Lane nourished Bernard with a natural diet and today he is in his 80s having lived a very successful and healthy life.

After her parents died (her mother in 1919 and her father in 1939) Laura Lane lived alone in the family home until March 20, 1960. A neighbor had gone to check on her and found her in her house with no heat. After being transported to Thompson Hospital she was pronounced dead. From Jim Swartzenberg—"It was in the deep of winter and Ernie (Montgomery) found her inside the house with no heat and apparently frozen to death." Dr. Lane requested that no services be held and she is buried in Boughton Hill Cemetery with a very modest gravestone. The property on which the Lane home and barn stood became a gravel pit and today is the site of a projected retail development called Fishers Ridge. I wonder what Dr. Laura Lane would think of the 21st century's focus on organic farming, eliminating chemicals and plastics and exercising - exactly what she had professed all those decades ago.

'99 Grad Uses Music to Move and Motivate Others

Nathan Merrill has always been passionate about music. In high school, he immersed himself in choral ensembles. Later, he traveled all over the country performing in a rock band. At one point, he wrote and sold songs just to support himself. These days, as a Music Specialist for Ontario ARC, Merrill is using music to move and motivate developmentally disabled people, helping them find their own glorious groove.

A Q&A with Nathan Merrill

What did you do after you graduated from VCS?

I attended Plattsburgh State University for one year before joining a rock band and travelling the United States. Using my skills as a pianist and vocalist, I wrote and performed songs using the money I made to support myself. It was a very formative time for me and I learned how to live independently and support myself through hard work. It was, at times, a challenging situation but I learned some valuable lessons regarding self-reliance. Looking back, it was the experience of travelling, working and self-dedication that really prepared me to go back to college and succeed. I received my Bachelor's degree in Sociology from Brockport University and began working as a music teacher at Cobblestone Arts Center in Farmington NY. I worked there for 7 years developing the music program aimed at helping people with developmental disabilities explore the arts and music. After that, I began working at Ontario ARC. I have been the Music Specialist at Ontario ARC since 2017 as part of their Creative Expressions program. The Creative Expressions program includes horticulture and visual arts programming for the people who attend day services.

Tell me about your work at Ontario ARC.

As Music Specialist I conduct lessons with people who attend our day services at Ontario ARC. In addition, I take musical groups to perform at various venues in the community. While teaching, I often draw from my experience as a performer. I like my lessons to be interactive and fun while allowing participants to express themselves anyway they see fit. We have a wonderful music room at Ontario ARC where participants can choose from a variety of instruments including drums, keyboards, bells etc. I often setup the classroom like a stage allowing participants to perform for an audience. The people we serve at Ontario ARC have intellectual and developmental disabilities that might make it difficult to engage in typical musical activities. As a result, we employ a variety of adaptive instruments that make it easier for people to participate in class. We have instruments that require only the breath to activate a drum or keyboard. We will often use "switches" that require the participant to apply a minimal amount of pressure to trigger a drum. These types of adaptive instruments make it easier for participants to engage in musical activities.

What VCS teacher(s) inspired you the most?

There were two teachers who inspired me greatly.

Mr. Thomas, the choir and theatre instructor, was a huge inspiration for me. I was in chorus throughout my four years of high school and his passion rubbed off on me. He had this charisma that inspired his students to be great. He taught me musical skills that I still use and I know he helped inspire many of us who were blessed to be in his choir.

Mr. Ferguson, my English teacher in middle school, was the first teacher who treated me like an adult. I used to write a lot of poetry back then and he took the time to edit and guide me through the artistic process. I still enjoy writing poetry and I owe a lot of that to him. He was one of those teachers who could really make you feel special. He had a great sense of humor and I remember him always joking about losing his hair. Everyone loved being in his class and he drew out the best in all his students.

How did your VCS education prepare you for what you're doing today?

I moved to Victor when I was 13 years old and my life changed for the better. The previous school I attended had very little opportunities' in the arts and music. The support I received in Victor was truly life changing. I was able to take many artistic courses at VCS, including chorus, and the skills I learned paved the way to where I am today. My career as music specialist requires me to draw from those foundational skills. But even more, it was the support for the arts that really inspired me. Victor did, and still does, support the Arts in our community and that's essential to a thriving community.

What advice would you give to a VCS graduate?

Please give yourself a moment of quiet each day to reflect, listen, and take the foot off the gas. In order to get anywhere good, you have to know where you're starting from. It's vital to have this moment of pause in your day.

Class of 1979 Celebrates 40th Reunion

The Class of 1979 came out in full force on Saturday, September 21, to celebrate their 40th reunion. Class reunion organizer, Eddie O'Brien, said that classmates traveled from 13 different states, and of the 100 people who attended the event, 74 were alumni.

Class members revisited and reconnected at a variety of activities including a bonfire and barbeque at Kevin Hunt's property, and a wine tour and home football game.

One special highlight of the reunion celebration occurred when classmate, Cathy Wilson, was presented with her class ring which had been lost more than 20 years ago. A Good Samaritan had been trying to find Cathy on social media for many years, saw a reunion Facebook page put up by Brett Tyler, and connected with the group. O'Brien said it was an amazing moment when Cathy and her brother Isaac came down the hill just in time to join them for the group photo.

"It was a great day with beautiful summer-like weather. Everyone was amazed at the number of class members that came to the celebration. It will be a very difficult task to top this reunion party but we'll probably try anyways. We are a lucky bunch to have so much love and friendship, still, after all these years," O'Brien said.

Victor Named 2018-2019 Scholar-Athlete School of Distinction Winner

The New York State Public High School Athletic Association, Inc. (NYSPHSAA) announced its 2018-19 Scholar-Athlete School of Distinction and School of Excellence Award winners. Victor Senior High School was one of 35 schools to earn the School of Distinction status. This honor is reserved for schools at which 100% of their varsity teams qualify for and receive the Scholar Athlete team award during their respective sport seasons. The purpose of the School of Distinction and School of Excellence Awards are to unite varsity coaches in challenging their teams to achieve this statewide honor. This year's figures represent the highest number of NYSPHSAA member schools being recognized for their academic achievements.

Dr. Robert Zayas, NYSPHSAA Executive Director said, seeing the numbers of schools honored increase again is a true testament to the kind of student-athletes were have here in New York State. "We continue to be proud of this program that highlights and celebrates schools that value the importance of academics, as well as athletics," he said.

Our Past, Our Present, Their Future

New LinkedIn Group Created for Victor Central School Alumni, Students, Staff, and Retirees

Submitted by Keith Partington, VCS Education Foundation Alumni Connections Committee

Our Victor Central School Education Foundation Alumni Connections Committee is excited to announce a new LinkedIn Group for alumni, students, staff, and retirees. This group is sponsored by the VCS Education Foundation Alumni Connections Committee and intended to promote professional networking among Victor Central School alumni, students, staff, and retirees. Our VCS Education Foundation was created in 2015 to provide educational opportunities for students and staff that are not possible through the regular school budget.

LinkedIn is the world's largest professional network with more than 645 million users in 200 countries and territories worldwide. While there are over 20 million job postings, it's also become a great digital tool where members can use posts to share and start conversations about what they're reading, ask for advice or ideas, and to respond to industry news, trending topics and other major events. The LinkedIn experience was designed so you can easily surface ideas, drive conversations, and discover topics you care about. Your homepage is the landing page you reach when you first sign in to your LinkedIn account. It includes your feed, access to your connections, profile, messages, and notifications. Your LinkedIn Feed contains posts from your network, companies you follow, and more.

Many school alumni associations and organizations such as the Victor Central School PTSA have created LinkedIn Groups. LinkedIn Groups provide a place for users with similar interests to share their insights and experiences, ask for guidance, and build valuable connections. Only members of the group can view, post, or comment on conversations within that group. This activity isn't made public or shown to your connections that aren't members of that group. Group members may see each other's posts, likes, and comments within the group, or in their LinkedIn feed. Group membership will be limited to alumni, students, staff, and staff retirees from the Victor Central School District in Victor, NY. Group members will be approved and added based on these criteria.

If you have a LinkedIn account, enter Victor Central School Alumni and Staff in the search box on the upper right menu and click the blue request to join button. If you don't have a LinkedIn account, check out the LinkedIn help page to get started at https://www.linkedin.com/help/linkedin.

Special thanks to Eileen Ryan-Maruke ('82), Alex Rozaklis ('13), and Dawn Santiago-Marullo (honorary class of '19 and recently retired Superintendent) who have volunteered on our Alumni Connections Committee to create and manage our group for the first year. This sub-committee will review usage and feedback during the first year to help ensure that usage remains relevant to our group's interests and intent. We look forward to your articles, posts, and feedback so we can grow this group to support our VCS Past, Present, and Future.

High School College and Career Center Seeks Internship Opportunities

The Victor Central School District is committed to providing students with the best education inside and outside of the classroom. One way we are doing this is by providing students with exceptional real world experiences. The College and Career Center at the Senior High School is dedicated to partnering with area professionals to make these experiences a reality.

Thanks to these valuable partnerships, students not only gain exposure to careers, but a firsthand view of potential future employment opportunities. These partnerships also enable businesses to establish meaningful working relationships with hardworking, driven students.

Do you have time and space for a VCS student in your workplace? Whether it is a job shadow, unpaid internship, or a small group discussion, all of these experiences provide valuable resources to our students. If you have worked with us in the past, thank you! Victor is extremely fortunate to have you in our community and we would appreciate the opportunity to partner with you again in the future. If you are new to the internship idea, we welcome your interest and look forward to the possibility of working you. For more information, please email Cindy Mereness at merenessca victorschools.org. She can also be reached at 585-924-3252, x 6424.

Victor Central Schools Seeks Archives

"Students can benefit in several ways from researching their school's history... This is history that is near at hand and that has a direct connection to their lives."

Larry J. Hackman, Director, Truman
 Presidential Museum and Library; former
 New York State Archivist

Do you have photographs of the victory garden that students in our school planted and tended during World War II?

Does an old box or filing cabinet hold copies of letters that students wrote concerning our country's involvement in Vietnam?

Did the science curriculum at Victor Central School change during the formative years of the personal computer revolution?

Schools produce rich historical records. Yearbooks, school lunch menus, flyers promoting dances, student elections, musicals, plays, photographs, letters, issues of the school newspaper, and other items document not only the history of the school, but often reflect the history of our community, state, and nation.

We have developed a school archives in our records center, housed in room 130 of the Primary School Building. Hopefully, this archive, or historical collection can serve two primary purposes:

- 1. Be a repository for the collection and preservation of historically valuable documents relating to the history of our school, which would otherwise be lost.
- 2. Constitute an important element of programs for teaching research-related skills to students.

As a key element in establishing this archive, we are urging the public to help support our endeavors by donating artifacts to the archives that they may have in and around their homes, which may otherwise be lost to future generations. We are particularly interested in:

Student handbooks

Student newspapers

Photographs

School lunch menus

Course catalogs

Student term papers about the school or Community

Artifacts (trophies, flags, uniforms, memorabilia)

Older Newspaper articles from the local newspapers

Special awards received

Records of special school programs

Audiotaped or videotaped oral histories

Scrapbooks

Videotapes of school performances and athletic events.

Perhaps you don't wish to part with your piece of history. You can still help our efforts by loaning us the article to copy, scan, or photograph. We look forward to your response. We also plan on having the artifacts exhibited from time to time. By the way, does anyone have a school bell from one of Victor's many one-room school houses? We'd love to hear from you...........
