

CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

November 19, 2019

District Celebrates Veterans Day by Honoring Local Heroes

CV faculty and students hosted various activities throughout the day for local veterans and their families.

CV Celebrates World Kindness Day / Mister Rogers Red Cardigan Day

As a symbol of kindness and love, students & staff dressed like Mister Rogers in his iconic cardigan sweater, on World Kindness Day.

New High School Main Entrance and Offices Now Open

As of November 5, the new high school main entrance and offices are open!

Photos courtesy of blog.ae.com

HS Student Featured in American Eagle's Global Minds Initiative Campaign

CV student Aleena Usman (bottom right) was featured in American Eagle Outfitters' campaign involving the Global Minds Initiative.

Dance Troupe Takes “Best All-Around Choreography” at Regionals

The CV Dance Troupe won 2nd place and 4th place medals, and Best All-Around Choreography at the Regional Competition

Student Athletes Represent CV at WPIAL Sportsmanship Summit

Anthony Collura, Ian Zimmerman, Brooke Kelly and Morgan Montani

Coaching Boys INTO MEN®

Dan Knause Recognized as “Coaching Boys into Men” MVP

Dan was selected for his positive influence on students both on and off the field. The focus on CBIM is to build strong character and respect for women.

MS Student Council Earns Distinguished Keystone Council Award

At the recent state conference, CVMS Student Council was chosen for the Distinguished Keystone Council Award

MS Boys Selected to Attend American Choral Directors Associate Fest

Sire Ghelanducci, Jared Barr, Brady Baranowski & Ian Malewski practiced with 90 other local boys under the direction of Temple University conductor Dr. Dustin Cates.

Primary and Intermediate Students Attend Junior Achievement Gala

Mrs. Franczyk and Mr. Hubert accompanied a group of students to the event. JA teaches youth about financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship.

CHARTIERS VALLEY in the news

Leaders receive training from Tree of Life, Sikh Temple attack experts

TRIB LIVE STEPHANIE HACKE | Wednesday, November 6, 2019 1:48 p.m.

Brad Orsini, communal security director for the Jewish Federation of Pittsburgh, speaks to attendees at the Friends of Safe Schools Threat Assessment conference.

Edward Joyner, Chartiers Valley's administrator of safety and security/school police officer, said the conference "provided an incredible opportunity to gather with other first responders and school leaders to learn about best practices, technology, and programs associated with keeping our children safe."

He is headed back to the district "with an abundance of ideas and resources."

Baldwin-Whitehall, Char Valley, West Jefferson Hills receive Safe Schools' Targeted Grants

TRIB LIVE STEPHANIE HACKE | Thursday, October 24, 2019 12:01 a.m.

Baldwin High School could a school resource officer thanks to a Safe Schools' Targeted Grant.

CHARTIERS VALLEY in the news

Dual role: Chartiers Valley students play football and in the band

TRIB LIVE

STEPHANIE HACKE | Monday, October 21, 2019 6:01 a.m.

KRISTINA SERAFINI | TRIBUNE-REVIEW

Freshman David Lundy (from left), freshman Connor Schultz, junior Isaac Minnetti-Houser, freshman Tony Vanzin and Robert Cibrone stand for a portrait at Chartiers Valley High School's stadium Monday, Oct. 14, 2019. The students, who participate in both football and band, spend their games' halftimes performing instead of heading to the locker room with teammates.

MY PROFILE

pg Home | News | Local | Sports | Opinion | A&E | Life | Business | Contact Us

City League athletic director to take AD job at Chartiers Valley

Mike Gavlik will start new job Oct. 14 and had been in charge of City League sports since 2005

CHARTIERS VALLEY in the news

Despite injuries, Chartiers Valley boys soccer season included playoff berth

By: Nathan Smith

Thursday, October 24, 2019 | 3:53 PM

Chartiers Valley volleyball adapts to changes to make WPIAL playoffs

By: Chuck Curti

Thursday, October 17, 2019 | 5:16 PM

CHARTIERS VALLEY in the news

Referee shortage could change tradition for families in Western Pa.

WPXI-TV News Pittsburgh

Subscribe

41 views

Referee shortage could change tradition for families in Western Pa.

WPXI-TV News Pittsburgh

Subscribe

41 views