2. Research the organizations in the area that fit with your interests. Get to know a little bit about what their mission is. Who is the contact person?
3. Make a phone call:
 - Introduce yourself, explain that you are interested in volunteering.
 - Ask : Are there any opportunities available for me? Do I need to have a parent with me? Do I need a permission slip? Where exactly do I report and to whom do I report?
 - Say THANK YOU.
4. If you need to leave a message make sure you speak slowly and clearly. Leave your full name, your contact number, and the reason why you were calling.
