Welcome: Trystin Glover

Approval of September Minutes: unanimous approval

Training Opportunities:

- Thursday, November 7, 6:00-8:00: Centennial Jr High in Kaysville

Attendance:

- On target to meet goal
- Incentives are in place and being monitored
- Amy Barker is working with students/families to be a positive school contact to help students.

Digital Literacy:

- Digital Responsibility – No cost to schools. Work with 1-2 classes. 6 modules, including Cyber Bullying, Identity and Safety. Can do 1 to all topics. Should be grade level specific what is chosen.

Safe Routes:

- Grades K-3 had an assembly
- 4-6 needs to be reminded. Current program being updated for this group. Perhaps Student Council, Clearfield City Youth Council or Marjorie can put together a short video or Kid in Story presentation.

Principal Topics:

- Structured Recess. Marjorie explained more of the program. There will be 3 different activity areas with a supervised activity. At first, students will be reminded/taught rules. Marjorie will address parent concerns in weekly email and asked council members to put out positives in the community about it helping to solve some of our unstructured time behaviors. Currently, teachers remind students of expectations and to solve problems as students go out. Grade level assemblies will be held at the roll out of program.
- Parking lot safety discussed. Reminder will be sent to parents to be off cell phones while in parking lot and to park when getting out of car to walk children in the building.

Nest Month's Agenda Items:

- Report of training attendance
- Structured Recess Implementation
- Digital Responsibly

Adjourn: Unanimous
