

Places will be offered to eligible applicants on the basis of the outcome of evaluations as set down below.

Year	Evaluation Procedure
Kindergarten (KG2)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Interactive activities to assess language development, foundational knowledge in literacy and numeracy, motor skills, and proficiency in English - Review of reports from nursery or pre-school (if available), and medical history - Parent consultation to learn history of Applicant, any special needs, parent expectations, and ways in which parents can participate in school life
Grade 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Informal discussion with Applicant to assess proficiency in English, communication and language skills, as well as personal and social development - Test to measure basic math and reading skills, for first semester admission. Measure of Academic Progress Test (*MAP®) in math and reading for second semester admission - Writing sample - Review of previous academic reports, any other school reports, and medical history - Parent consultation to learn history of Applicant, any special needs, parent expectations, and ways in which parents can participate in school life
Grade 2 – 8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Informal discussion to assess proficiency in English, communication and language skills, personal and social development, confidence levels, ability to co-operate with others, concentration levels and behavior - Measure of Academic Progress Test (*MAP®) to gauge overall academic level and appropriate grade placement - Writing sample - Review of previous academic reports, any other school reports, and medical history - Parent consultation to learn history of Applicant, any special talents or needs, parent expectations, and ways in which parents can participate in school life

*For details on MAP testing, please visit <https://www.nwea.org/assessments/map/>