

Priority Standards: Sociology

1. Understand sociological concepts and processes.

- Identify, define, and explain concepts and processes in sociology.
- Apply concepts and processes to scenarios in context.

2. Analyze quantitative sociological information and data.

- Describe, analyze, and interpret data in maps, charts, tables, and graphs.
- Use data to create maps, charts, tables, and graphs.
- Draw conclusions using data from maps, charts, tables, and graphs.
- Identify and describe limitations of data in maps, charts, tables and graphs.

3. Analyze qualitative sociological information and data.

- Read, analyze, and interpret foundational documents and other text-based and visual sources.
- Connect sources to sociological concepts and processes.

4. Demonstrate critical thinking and reasoning.

- Engage in civil discussion of issues relating to society and culture.
- Develop an argument on topics related to society and culture.
- Use sociological concepts, data, and sources to support a position.