1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Trust is committed to delivering excellence for its pupils and their families, staff and the local communities it serves. It seeks to deliver against this commitment by ensuring there is a highly knowledgeable, skilled and competent workforce. The Trust values its staff and invests in training and development at all stages of their careers.
- 1.2 The Trust believes that secondments provide a platform for employees to share ideas, insights and best practice, as well as providing valuable career development opportunities.
- 1.3 Secondments are open to all employees within the Trust except those that are within their probation period.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

- 2.1 The Executive Team has overall responsibility to ensure that the staff establishment meets the operational and strategic needs of the Trust.
- 2.2 Principals/Heads of Service are responsible for efficient workforce planning to meet the needs of their respective academy/department, including short term requirements that may be fulfilled using secondments and/or vacancies arising from an employee undertaking a secondment within or outside of the academy/department.
- 2.3 Staff with line management responsibility of substantive and seconded roles are responsible for complying with the procedures outlined in this policy, ensuring that secondees are recruited and managed in a way that reflects the principles herewith and best practice.
- 2.4 Finance is responsible for ensuring that recruiting decisions are financially viable and fully funded through approved budgets and/or external funding arrangements.
- 2.5 HR is responsible for providing information, support and guidance on matters relating to secondments and associated policies, procedures and contractual provisions.

3. Secondment Arrangements

- 3.1 A secondment is the temporary deployment of an employee into an alternative role and/or workplace.
- 3.2 Secondments can support an employee's professional development by providing an opportunity for them to transfer their knowledge and skills to a different working environment, therefore challenging themselves professionally and broadening their experience.

3.3 The Trust operates three types of secondment:

Internal – a different role within an academy/department

Intra-Trust – a role in a different department/academy within the Trust

External – a role within an external organisation

3.4 The types of work that may be considered for secondment include*:

- A specific project or piece of work
- Short term appointment prior to making a permanent appointment
- Cover for long term absence e.g. maternity, sickness

This list is not exhaustive.

**A secondment does not apply to situations where employees temporarily undertake additional responsibilities or acting up assignments, for which other provisions apply. See Support Staff Pay Policy for further details.*

- 3.5 The duration of a secondment will normally be up to 12 months, however can be extended for up to 2 years in exceptional circumstances.
- 3.6 Secondment arrangements must be agreed by all parties, namely the secondee, their manager and the person managing the secondment, hereafter referred to as the 'host', and confirmed in a 'secondment agreement'.

4. Recruitment and Selection

- 4.1 In the interests of equality of opportunity, all secondments within the Trust should be advertised internally. The advertisement may be limited to staff within the specific department/academy where appropriate.
- 4.2 Recruitment and selection will be conducted in a fair and non-discriminatory manner. Practices will be in line with the principles of the Trust's Recruitment policy.

5. Management and Communication

- 5.1 On a day-to-day basis, the secondee will report to and be managed in line within the host organisation's reporting structures. The host's line management responsibility and related performance management practices will apply, including appraisal arrangements.
- 5.2 Before the start of a secondment, the employee and their substantive manager should agree communication arrangements during the secondment period. In the case of long-term secondments, the manager and the secondee will normally begin to make arrangements for the employee's return no later than 2 months before the secondment ends.
- 5.3 Any matters of concern that need to be addressed formally will be dealt with by the manager of the employee's substantive post who retains responsibility of for the employment relationship. However, this will be in collaboration with the host.

6. Returning to substantive post

- 6.1 The employee will have the right to return to their substantive role upon completion of the secondment. Prior to their return and in accordance with 5.2, the employee and their substantive manager will meet to discuss and agree arrangements for the employee's return. This meeting will include:
- An overview of academy/department and Trust developments
  - Clarification of the role and responsibilities
  - Setting expectations and objectives
  - Discussing how any skills acquired during the secondment can be applied in the employee's substantive role
- 6.2 A secondment may be terminated early by mutual agreement, or by either party giving notice as agreed and confirmed in the secondment agreement. This will usually be a minimum of four weeks.

7. Principles

- 7.1 A secondment is a voluntary agreement between the Trust and an employee. Neither party is able to insist that a secondment is offered and undertaken, and the secondees manager must agree to the employee undertaking a secondment.
- 7.2 Internal and Intra-trust secondments on the same grade will be at the same rate of pay as the employee's substantive post. If the secondment is to a higher graded post, the salary will normally be at the lowest scale point of the relevant grade.
- 7.3 If the secondment position is in a different staff category from the employee's substantive position, different terms and conditions may apply. This will not affect continuity of service.
- 7.4 The host organisation is responsible for the payment of salary and expenses during the secondment period.
- 7.5 During a secondment, whether internally or externally, salary awards and increments will take place as normal. Upon completion of the secondment, the employee will return to their substantive grade and scale point subject to any adjustments that took place during the period of the secondment.
- 7.6 HR policies and procedures will continue to apply to all secondments. An external secondee will be expected to comply with policies and procedures of the host organisation, including health and safety, safeguarding and other statutory related provisions.
- 7.7 Secondments may be full time or part time. In the event that secondee amends their usual working hours for the duration of a secondment, the terms and conditions will be amended accordingly, including pro-rata arrangements if applicable. If the secondment is on a full-time basis, the secondee is expected to fully relinquish the responsibilities of their substantive position upon commencement of the secondment.
- 7.8 If the substantive role of a secondee is fixed term and/or has limited funding, this should be considered when assessing suitability and the duration of the secondment.
- 7.9 If there is a restructure which affects the employee's substantive post during the period of a secondment, the secondee will be included in the consultation process and treated as if they were still in post.
- 7.10 All documentation relating to an employee's secondment will be treated confidentially and used, retained and disposed of in accordance with GDPR.
